MINNIE M'BETH, 86, FUNERAL AT EWING

EWING—Funeral services were held Monday, May 14, at the Ewing Methodist church for Mrs. Minnie M'Beth, 86, who died Saturday, May 11.
 Rev. C. C. Chappell officiated and burial was in the Bancroft cemetery.

 Mrs. M'Beth, daughter of John and Julia Martin, was born at Gainesville Wisc., on February 17, 1865.
 At the age of 6, she moved with her parents to Iowa and after a year's residence in that state moved in 1872 to a homestead north of Albion. In the 9 years they lived there, only one crop was harvested. Grasshoppers destroyed their crops and forced them to leave. The family then made their home at Bancroft, where the deceased grew to womanhood.

On February 17, 1883, Minnie Martin was united in marriage to Reisin M'Beth and for some time they resided on a farm near Bancroft. Mr. M'Beth became interested in buying, improving and selling farms. This took them to Wayne, Page and Arlington, where Mr. M'Beth died on November 11, 1929. His widow continued to make her home there until failing health necessitated the closing of her home and moving to Ewing to be near her niece, Mrs. John Latzel, in whose home she was residing at the time of her death.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, and 5 brothers.
 Survivors include: Sister—Mrs. Wallace Shadbolt, of South Sioux City; brother—Ervin, of Broadway; and a great host of nephews and nieces.
 Mrs. M'Beth was a life-long member of the Congregational church.

Honors Husband—
 Mrs. Oliver Ross entertained 6 couples at a pitch party Sunday evening in honor of Mr. Ross' birthday anniversary. Late refreshments were served.
