

Maxine Lois Golden, Becomes Bride of Dr. Richard Owens

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Saturday, June 2, at 10 a. m., when Miss Maxine Lois Golden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell J. Golden, became the bride of Dr. Richard Lee Owens, son of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Owens, of Kansas City, Mo. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, church pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with pink-and-white peonies. Sister M. Flores played the wedding music and accompanied the soloists, Miss Nancy Froelich, who sang, "On This Day" and "Panis Angelicus," and Miss Kathleen Flood, who sang "Ave Maria" and "Just for Today."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organdy with a yoke of illusion fashioned with seed pearls. The fitted bodice was completed with long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The blouse featured self covered buttons in the back. The skirt formed an apron effect in the front which formed an aisle-wide train. Her illusion veil was held in place by a tiara of white organdy and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Maid-of-honor for her sister was Miss Kathryn Golden, who wore a pink embossed organdy gown over taffeta fashioned with a pink taffeta bolero. She wore a braided tiara. Bridesmaids were Miss Ann Hayes, of Omaha, and Mrs. Don Hayes, of Leigh. They were dressed in aqua and yellow, respectively, identical to the maid-of-honor. Each carried carnation bouquets to match their dresses and wore a single strand of pearls, gifts of the bride.

The bridegroom and his best man, Herbert Owens, of Kansas City, a brother, were dressed in navy blue suits. Groomsmen were Harold Owens, of Kansas City, also a brother of the bridegroom, and Dr. Don Wolters of Atchison, Kans. Ushers were Joe Gleason and Mike Michaelis, both of Kansas City, and Dr. John L. McKay, of Omaha. All wore white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's mother wore a rose beige lace dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was of tea roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a lavender linen suit with purple accessories and wore a white gardenia corsage. A reception was held at the Town House immediately following the ceremony. Pink and white snapdragons and gardenias furnished the decorations. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. F. M. Brennan, Mrs. P. B. Harty, Mrs. F. N. Cronin, Mrs. M. L. Miller, Mrs. I. J. Kinsman, Marvin Miller and Thomas Harty.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's academy in O'Neill and St. Catherine's nursing school in Omaha. Doctor Owens is a graduate of Rockhurst high school, Rockhurst college, Kansas City, and Creighton medical school in Omaha.

For traveling the bride wore a wheat colored linen 3-piece suit trimmed in red with red and wheat colored linen accessories. After a trip through Minnesota and parts of Canada, the couple will make their home in Kansas City, where the bridegroom will intern in St. Elizabeth's hospital.

Out-of-town guests included: Miss Ruth Ann Neumann, of Atchison, Kans.; Mrs. Margaret McMillan, of Miami, Fla.; Mrs. John Robinson and son, John, of Hampton, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kinsman and son, Tommy, of Ogallala; Doris Koenig, of Spencer; Dr. Don Wolters, of Atchison, Kans.; Alva Cavitt and Joy, of Council Bluffs, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kinsman, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Don Hayes, of Leigh; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Owens, of St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. W. P. Wagner and daughter, Janet, Dr. John L. McKay, Madeleine Duffy, Mary Ann Hayes, all of Omaha; Joe Gleason, Mike Michaelis, Herbert Owens, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Owens, Mrs. A. W. Baumgardner, Mr. and Mr. K. F. Trotter, C. V. Owens, Dr. and Mrs. Graham Owens, Beatrice Crane, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Doering, Jean, Paul and David, all of Kansas City; and Dr. and Mrs. Kai Pederson, of Hong Kong, China.

Miss Margaret Ryan, John W. Smith Wed

St. Michael's Catholic church at South Sioux City was the setting for the wedding at 9 o'clock Saturday morning when Miss Margaret Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ryan, of South Sioux City, became the bride of John W. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Smith, of Sioux City.

Rev. M. A. Quinn officiated at the nuptial mass in a setting of spring flowers.

George Hammond, of O'Neill, sang the "Ave Maria" and "O Lord I Am Not Worthy," with Mrs. John Harty as accompanist.

The bride, who entered the church with her father, wore a ballerina gown of chantilly lace over satin with seed pearl trim. Her white satin bonnet was decorated with seed pearls and was worn with an illusion veil. She carried red roses on a white prayer book.

Miss Rosemary Ryan of South Sioux City, the bride's sister, was maid-of-honor. She wore a bouffant frock of blue lace and carried yellow roses.

R. Sam Krage served as best man and ushering were Leroy Brown and William Bowler.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Ryan received in a tan summer suit with pink roses and Mrs. Smith chose a pink suit. Her flowers were yellow carnations.

After a wedding trip to Lake Okoboji, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will live at 3914 Fourth avenue, Sioux City.

The bride lived in O'Neill for several years where her father was manager of Tri-State Produce company. Her sister is Mrs. George Hammond. The Hammonds were among those attending the wedding.
