Marciene Shroeder Weds Robert Coover

EWING — Miss Marciene Shroeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Shroeder, of Ewing, on Sunday, June 17, became the bride of Robert Coover, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coover, of Neligh. The 8 p.m. double-ring ceremony at the Ewing Methodist church was performed by Rev. C. C. Chappell before an altar beautiful with gladioli, summer flowers and candelabras.

The bride's dress had a bodice of white chantilly lace with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves with points over the hands, fastened at the back with a long row of buttons. The white satin skirt fell in soft folds with a 5-yard train. Her fingertip veil was edged with chantilly lace and was held in place with a pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of red roses. For something old, she wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom; for something new, her dress; for something blue, a garter; and something borrowed, lipstick.

She was given in marriage by her father.

Phyllis Cernousek, friend of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and Elaine Coover, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. Each wore a gown of blue marquisette trimmed in taffeta, with matching headpieces. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Gloria Shroeder, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a gold-colored formal with matching headpiece and carried baskets of daisies. Billy Krueger, a cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer. He wore white trousers and a dark coat, carrying the rings in a calla lily.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Shroeder chose a gown of aqua beaumont. The bridegroom's stepmother was gowned in navy blue. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

Bonnie Jo Jefferies and Evelyn Reikofski, of Neligh, wearing white formals, lighted the candles.

The bridegroom was attired in a grey suit, wearing a red rose boutonniere. Dwight Shroeder, brother of the bride, was best man, and Lyle Coover, brother of the bridegroom, was groomsmen. Each wore white carnation boutonnières, as did the fathers of the bride and bridegroom.

Proceeding the ceremony, traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Wilbur Spangler and Mrs. Wm. Hubel, of Neligh, sang "O Perfect Love". As the bride and groom were placed before an altar, Mrs. Hubel sang "Always". On completion of the ceremony Dwight Shroeder sang "Blest Be the Tie".

A reception following the ceremony was held in the church parlors. Refreshments were served. The table for the bride and bridegroom, their attendants and near relatives, was lovely in the bride's chosen colors of blue-and-white. A 3-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, beautifully decorated in blue-and-white was used as a centerpiece. It was flanked with tall blue-and-white candles in crystal holders. Above the cake, suspended from the ceiling, was a large blue-and-white bell from which streamers in matching colors extended to each corner of the table. The streamers were fastened in place with a smaller bell. The cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom, the bride then serving each present at the table.

Other guests present were served ice cream, cup cakes and coffee buffet style. Miss Anna VanZandt and Miss Margaret Krueger, of Norfolk, did the serving. Others assisting were: Mrs. Jessie Angus, Mrs. Earl Billings, Mrs. R. G. Rockey, Mrs. Harold Harris and Mrs. Florence Butler.

Gifts piled high on a lace covered table were opened by the newlyweds. Sally Christon had charge of the guest and gift books.

Mrs. Coover is a graduate of the Ewing high school in the class of 1949. She chose teaching as her profession and has taught the past 2 years in district 196. Mr. Coover served 18 months in the navy. The past year he has been engaged in trucking.

The Coopers will make their home 5 1/2 miles north of Meadow Grove after a wedding trip through the Ozark mountains. They will also visit Bernard Shroeder, Mrs. Coover's brother, who is stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.
