Page squeaked past Inman, 4-3, in a ding-dong overtime game at Inman, although outitting the losers, 14 - 7. Both teams were charged with 4 errors.

Inman led 3-2 going into the first half of the 9th, but Page collected 3 straight hits to bring in the tying run. There were no runs in the 10th for either team. In the first half of the 11th Page pushed across a run on 2 hits and 1 error. Inman was unable to score in the last of the 11th.

Darrel Heiss was the winning pitcher, going all 11 innings and collecting 15 strikeouts.

Milo Gorgen was the losing pitcher. However, he had a good day at the plate, collecting 3 hits in 5 times at bat.
