Francis Murray Takes a Bride

Miss Doris Marie Muenstermann and Francis A. Murray were married in a 10 a. m. ceremony at St. Patrick's church, in Kankakee, Ill., on Saturday, June 16.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester A. Muenstermann, of Kankakee, and the bridegroom is the son of Francis H. Murray, of O'Neill.

Celebrant at the nuptial high mass was Rev. J. F. Meara, of Kankakee, assisted by Rev. Alfred Herbert, of LaCrosse, Wis., and Rev. James Naughtin, of Athens, Ill.

The bride's gown was of imported Chantilly lace with a nylon and rayon marquisette yoke. The skirt was fashioned with inserts of lace and ended in a long train. The sleeves were long and pointed over the wrists. The fingertip veil trimmed with Chantilly lace fell from a bonnet style headpiece. She carried a bouquet of Amazon lilies and stephanotis. Her string of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Kenneth C. Harvey attended her sister as matron of honor and Miss Zerita Muenstermann, also a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore blue gowns of taffeta and lace, and carried arm bouquets of roses.

Edward Murphy, cousin of the bridegroom, served as bestman. Groomsman was Howard Lyon.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents in the afternoon.

Murray is a graduate of O'Neill high school. He attended Notre Dame university and Iowa State College, where he graduated with a bachelor of science degree. He is now employed as an industrial engineer by the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray will make their home in Kankakee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCarville, sr., visited friends in Bonesteele, S. D., Sunday.
