

Ewing's Oldest At 97th Milestone

EWING—Mrs. Frances Lowery had a gala day Tuesday, June 19, when she celebrated her 97th birthday anniversary at her home. Friends called during the day and many more sent greetings and gifts by mail.

Nebraska has been her home since 1886, when she and her husband moved from Missouri to a homestead in Garfield county. At that time, Mrs. Lowery was suffering from tuberculosis of the lungs, and the change of climate proved to be beneficial to her health. With rest and care during the following 4 years she found a complete recovery from the illness.

Four children were born to the Lowerys: Mrs. Bertha Stumbaugh, the only one surviving, lives with her aged mother.

Mrs. Lowery has 18 grandchildren, 55 great-grandchildren and 13 great-great-grandchildren.

In 1907, Mrs. Lowery with her husband, James E. Lowery, now deceased, moved from their homestead to Ewing which has been her home ever since.

During the years when health permitted, she was an active member of the Ewing Methodist church as well as active in community affairs.

At present she holds the honors for being the oldest member of the church as well as the oldest citizen in Ewing.

Missionary Group in Annual Picnic
