

October 1st Finish Date

ST. ANTHONY'S PROGRESSES . . . October 1 has been fixed as the finish date for the near half-million-dollar St. Anthony's hospital under construction here. This week the roof is being poured. Olof Mathisen, foreman of the Busboom & Rah Construction Co., says completion of the roof will be an important step because finishing can proceed regardless of weather. Rain this spring has cost the workmen "a day or two" a week, Mathisen says. James M. Corkle, head of the hospital building committee, explains that hospital furnishings and equipment soon will be arriving.—The Frontier Photo & Engraving.

CORRIDOR — THIRD FLOOR . . . Length of St. Anthony's hospital can be appreciated with the above view of the third floor east-west corridor (looking west) before the roof was poured. — The Frontier Photo & Engraving.

4 JANZING GENERATIONS . . . When little Julia Ann Janzing was christened Sunday, June 24, at the Church of the Epiphany at Emmet, she was the third generation in the family to wear a handmade christening dress, previously worn by her father, John J. Janzing, and her grandfather, Herman Janzing (right). Her great-grandfather, Garrett Janzing (left), proudly looks on. The elder Mr. Janzing came to America from northwestern Germany in 1889. He helped build the Church of the Epiphany. Julia Ann's mother is the former Lottie Ann Babl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Babl. — The Frontier Photo & Engraving.

Stanley Lambert, Ewing, Takes Bride

Chambers— The marriage of Miss Dorothy Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Bowman, of Albion, and Stanley Lambert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lambert, of Ewing, was solemnized Sunday, June 10, at the Methodist church in Albion.

Rev. Richard Dinsdale read the lines of the 3 p. m. ceremony in the presence of 200 guests. Pedestal baskets of white, yellow and lavender gladioli, woodwardia fern and tall white tapers in 7 branched candelabra appointed the chancel.

Mrs. Robert Hutchinson played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Dean Goran, of St. Paul, Minn., sister of the bridegroom, who sang "If I Could Tell You" and Neal Baxter, of North Platte, who sang "At Dawning" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding a gown of white Chantilly lace over white satin. The fitted bodice featured a standing pointed collar, with tiny covered buttons from the collar to the waistline. Her long fitted sleeves ended in bridal points over the hands, and the flared skirt terminated in a court train. The fingertip double tier veil of illusion net fell from a sweetheart headress of Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of baby orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. James Younce, of Columbus, sister of the bride, who wore a gown of pastel lavender organza, and carried a bouquet of lavender chrysanthemums.

Miss Jean Holmes, of Albion, and Miss Mary Chace, of Pilger, were bridesmaids. They wore yellow organza gowns and carried colonial bouquets of yellow and lavender pompons.

Lighting the tapers were Mrs. Kirk Bowman, of David City, and Mrs. Tom Lambert, of Ewing.

Jean Lambert, of St. Paul, Minn., served her brother as best man. Seating the guests were Kirk Bowman, of David City, Tom Lambert, of Ewing, and Tom Chilvers, of Pierce.

Garden flowers decorated the church parlors for the reception. Assisting were Mrs. Mary Nelson, Mrs. Frances Pelton, Mrs. Tom Chilvers, Mrs. Kenneth LaRue, Mrs. Dale Flowerday, Mrs. Neal Baxter, Mrs. Dick Kittelson, Miss Mary Frances Johnson, Miss Carolyn Huston, Miss Joe Meyer, Miss Virginia Barnes and Mrs. Edgar Hamm, all of Albion.

For her traveling ensemble to Colorado the bride wore a grey Irish linen suit with navy and pink accessories and an orchid corsage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lambert are graduates of the University of Nebraska where Mrs. Lambert is a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, Omicron Nu and Mortar Board, and Mr. Lambert is affiliated with Farm House, Alpha Zeta, Tri-K and Block and Bridle club.
