

Peabody Family Gathers at Celia

CELIA—Mrs. Mark Hendricks and family are enjoying a family reunion of the Peabodys at her ranch home, Friday, June 22, her mother, Mrs. Melba Peabody Poynts and husband, Omer Poynts, arrived from Tulsa, Okla.; her sister Mrs. Wayne (Lilah) Gwalney, and daughters, Bobby Jean, Linda and Arlene; brother, C. I., Peabody, and Jill and Jack, both of Placerville, Calif.; sister, Mrs. Arthur (Billy Bird) Duarte, Duane and Myrl Lee; and sister, Mrs. A. C. (Minnie) House, and husband, also children, Lorraine, Merlin, Clarence, Wesley, Johnny and Arla, both from Concord, Calif., also a cousin, John Ott.

The California group arrived by automobile Monday, June 25, and expect to leave for California Thursday, July 5.

From Dallas, S.D., came an aunt, Mrs. George Peabody, and sons, Milford, George and Bobby, also her daughter, Mrs. Gayhart Manke, and husband and children, Marilyn and Bobby, who arrived Friday, June 29, and will return home Sunday evening, July 1.

One brother, Jack Peabody, could not get his vacation at this time so was unable to attend the reunion.

The Peabodys, while now living in California, were former residents in this part of the country several years ago and are well-known by many around Atkinson.

Wednesday, Mrs. J. R. Jarvis, grandmother of most of the California group, came out from Atkinson and joined the group at a fishing picnic. Lots of fish were caught and eaten.

Joe Hendricks and family were visitors at the Hendricks home Friday evening, June 28. Friday Robert Hendricks and a group of cousins visited the Leonard Chaffin family.
