Hammond's Contest 'Big Success'

The Frontier's editor and publisher, Cal Stewart, was out-of-town Saturday. Whereupon, the "Voice of The Frontier" announcer dreamed up a radio contest which brought a deluge of postcards from listeners in 3 states.

Hammond told his Saturday listeners that the persons sending to The Frontier a postcard from the greatest distance, saying they heard that particular program and insuring it was postmarked before midnight on Monday, July 30, would receive a 1-year subscription from The Frontier.

Before the day was over mail began coming in. By Wednesday morning Hammond's stunt had produced a stack of postcards 5 inches high.

Hammond revealed the winner on the Wednesday, August 1, program. The contest, he said, was named "George Hammond's postcard contest while the boss was away" (GHPCWBWA).

Winner was Mrs. Albert Reynolds, of Neligh, who was spending last weekend in Glenwood, Ia., heard the announcement there and mailed the postcard from Glenwood.

For good measure, Hammond issued 6 months' subscriptions to Mrs. John Dineson, of Harlan, Ia., and Mrs. A. L. Stiner, of Westington, S. D.

Other cards came from Albion, Jackson, Omaha, Orchard, Dixon, Lincoln, Bristow, Creighton, Stuart, Emmet, Stanton, Page, North Bend, Wisner, Elgin, Ashland, Ord, Leigh, Howells (a dozen from there), Oakland, Grand Island, LeMars, Ia., Mapleton, Ia., Herrick, S. D., Brunswick, Neligh, St. Edward, Belden, Tilden, Redbird, Utica, Chambers, Duff, Crete and many from O'Neill.

Collect Dakota Soil for 4-H Scrapbooks

One of the most outstanding days of the year for the Riverside 4-H club was Sunday, July 29.

After attending 7 o'clock mass, the 4-Hers enjoyed a trip in Frank Fiala's truck to Niobrara state park. They were followed by the parents in cars with well-filled dinner baskets. The day was spent in boat riding, swimming, taking pictures, exploring, and eating.

Jerry Beha, Shirley Ross and Mrs. John Vitt were honored with birthday cakes. Mrs. Vitt also received a corsage from the Schneiders.

Before starting for home they drove to the Missouri river, and all enjoyed a trip across it on the ferry, "Bertha," to the South Dakota border where souvenir collectors grabbed South Dakota soil for their scrapbooks.

Many old acquaintances and friends' names were found carved on the ferry.

Four members were unable to attend. Guests were Frank, Joe and Mary Fiala and Mr. and Mrs. John Pribil and girls.

It was a day that will linger in the memories of all.—By Mary Frances Vitt, news reporter.
