In a very pretty wedding at St. John's Catholic church in the Deloit community on Tuesday, July 24, Miss Annabelle Koenig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Koenig, became the bride of Pfc. Emil J. Adamson, son of Carl E. Adamson, of O'Neill. Rev. C. J. Kaup, church pastor, officiated in the 2 p.m. double-ring cere-

The bride was given away by her father. She wore a white lace ballerina gown. Her veil was a finger tip illusion, cascading from a flared bride's bonnet with a cluster of pearls for decoration. She wore earrings, a gift of the bridegrom, and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The bridesmaid, Bernice Koenig, a cousin of the bride, wore a blue lace ballerina gown and matching hat. She carried a bouquet of esphercedes.

The bridegroom, who is in the army, wore his uniform and was attended by the bride's brother, Leonard Koenig.

Mrs. Koenig, the bride's mother, was dressed in navy blue with white accessories. She wore a pink and white carnation corsage.

Donald Adamson and Francis Holz, both of O'Neill, were the ushers. Gene Koenig was the only altar boy. Mrs. Mark Sehi played the wedding march.

After the ceremony the guests enjoyed a social hour in the church clubroom which was decorated in blue and white. The couple opened their numerous gifts. The tables for the refreshments were laid with white linen and blue napkins, with pink garden flower centerpieces.

Mrs. Donald Adamson was in charge of the guest book. The bride graduated from Ewing high school in 1948, and then attended Briar Cliff college in Sioux City for a year. She has been employed at Consumers Public Power in O'Neill for the past 2 years. The bridegroom graduated from O'Neill high
