Bigger Receipts Forecast

Receipts at today's sale are expected to be substantially greater than a week ago when activity lagged because of the busy harvest. Cattle offering will include quite a number of long yearlings and several packages of cows and heifers—one group including 35 head. There will be the usual run of butcher cattle. Fat cattle earlier in the week sold steady to 25c higher at the terminals.

Hogs were about 50c stronger at the terminals, assuring another good market here today. Still a lot of feeder pigs showing up.
