Boys Make Knots for Demonstrations

The 212 South Fork 4-H club met Friday afternoon, July 27, at Melvin Michael's for a business meeting. The meeting was called to order by the vice - president, Gary Holcomb. Roll call was answered by naming a favorite song. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Jennie Halsey.

We decided to meet August 24 at LeRoy Holcomb's. In our lessons the boys made their knots for exhibition and the girls discussed exhibiting their sewing. We had yard beautification and pig lessons.

After the meeting we played games and Mrs. Michael served a lunch of sandwiches, cake and cool-ade.

At demonstration day there were 8 from our club who demonstrated. Gale Holcomb and Kenneth Backhaus demonstrated tying knots. Marlene Ermer and Jennie Halsey demonstrated planting trees. Jeanene Backhaus demonstrated frozen foods. Joleyn Backhaus gave yard beautification on flannel-graph and Lois Strong on yard beautification. —By Lois Strong, news reporter.

New Barn Will Go Up At Stuart

STUART—Work was started last week on the new hay barn which will replace the barn destroyed by fire on July 4.

The contract to rebuild the hay barn was given to the Galleher Lumber company by L. H. Owen, representative of the Omaha Corn State Serum company.

The barn will be 80 feet by 50 feet with 14 foot sidewalls. An all-metal roof will come to a 24-foot peak. The contract calls for its completion in time for hay storage this fall.
