Lampert-Phillips Nuptials at O'Neill

Miss Barbara Lampert, daughter of Martin Lampert, of Orchard, and Bryce Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Phillips, of Star, exchanged vows Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church at O'Neill. Rev. Ralph Gerber officiated with the double-ring ceremony. The bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white net over pink taffeta. Her veil of pink net fell from a wide brimmed pink hat. She carried an arrangement of pink carnations on a white Bible.

Miss Dorothy Howard, of Orchard, maid-of-honor, wore a lime green ballerina length gown fashioned like that of the bride. Bestman was Walter Johnson, of Walnut.

After a short wedding trip the couple will live at Star.

Circle Members Assessed by Birthdays

Circle III of the Presbyterian church were hostesses at a year around birthday party given last Thursday at the band room of the high school. Miss La Veta Lehn was general chairman. The program committee, headed by Mrs. Ralph Gerber, consisted of the Mesdames Ray Bettenhausen, William Artus and Don McKamy. Mrs. Harry Petersen was chairman in charge of the tables, Mrs. Ray Shelhamer was chairman of refreshments, which consisted of ice cream, coffee and birthday cake.

Each of the 12 tables, which represented a month of the year, was appropriately decorated for the theme of that month. Each table had a birthday cake on it. Guests sat at the table corresponding to their birth month.

The entrance fee was to represent the guest's age, but in case the guest desired to remain discreet about the age, a dollar was accepted.

A huge picture frame in which live scenes depicting each month of the year were designated by 20 participants of all ages. The connecting narrative for the scenes was written by Mrs. Gerber. Miss Lois Harder was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Gerber.

The ladies of the Bethany Presbyterian church and the Kellar Presbyterian church attended. There were 93 guests, 20 participants in the program and 20 members of the entertaining circle present.

The ladies from each of the churches who had celebrated the most birthdays were Mrs. Sam Barnard, of First Presbyterian church, Mrs. E. F. Young, of the Kellar church, and Mrs. C. A. Van Valkenberg, of the Bethany church.
