4 Holt Men Report 'Excellent' Fishing

Four Holt county fishermen returned last weekend with ample evidence of good fishing in northern Canada.
R. F. Griffin and G. E. Morgan, both of Atkinson, and Sumner Downey and William F. Griffin, both of O'Neill, spent 10 days at Lac La Rouge, which is situated approximately 150 miles north of Prince Albert national park.
The lake, they said, has been open to fishing only 3 years—since the completion of a new road which winds through the wilderness for about 125 miles from the park. Lac La Rouge has been producing fabulous catches of lake trout, walleyes and pickerel (known there as jackfish).
They caught their limit in all species and brought along their proof!

Letters Have a Way Reaching Destination

The Frontier doffs its hat to the grey-bearded man's postal employees.
This week 2 letters found their way to The Frontier which conceivably might have been consigned to the dead letter office.
One, from Neligh, was addressed like this: "Lord Calvert, The Frontier; O'Neill, Snap in the Garter Belt."
The other: "The Voice, O'Neill."
The former address obviously was satire on O'Neill's new slogan, "O'Neill—the Buckle in the Hay Belt." Presumably it was intended for Carroll ("Cal") Stewart, The Frontier publisher. The latter was intended for George Hammond, "The Voice of The Frontier" announcer and it contained nothing less than a bonafide order and script for an advertisement on Hammond's radio program (WJAG, 780 kc, 9:45 a.m., Mon., Wed., Sat.)

Resumes Position

A veteran of World War II, he had been recalled to active duty last fall, spent several months on Eta Jima island, off the coast of Japan. Johnson was separated from the army last week on the West coast and reached O'Neill Saturday.
