Ainsworth Lutheran Pastor Re-elected

"My hope and prayer is that the Lord may give me understanding and courage so that through my counseling many souls may be strengthened in the knowledge that Jesus Christ is their Saviour from sin."

These were the words of Rev. Walter Hartmann, pastor of Zion Lutheran church, of Ainsworth, after having been re-elected to the office of supervisor and counselor of all the Lutheran churches (Missouri synod) in north-central Nebraska. This honor was bestowed upon him by the convention held at Seward last week. All Lutheran churches of this synod in northern Nebraska and northern Wyoming were represented.

In carrying out his work, Reverend Hartmann will be making periodic visits to the many churches of this area and wherever possible will offer his counsel and encouragement. His territory stretches from Crookston in the west to O'Neill in the east; and from Fairfax, S.D., in the north to Chambers in the south. Christ Lutheran church, of O'Neill, Rev. R. W. Olson, pastor, is one of the churches under Reverend Hartmann's supervision.
