

When You and I Were Young . . .
Rope in Courtroom
Proved Not a Noose

50 Years Ago
Mr. Reka, our enterprising cigar manufacturer, is the first O'Neill man to venture an automobile. He has one ordered and is looking for it any day. He expects to get the best of the expensive hay market by driving a horseless carriage. . . Fire destroyed the house on T. A. Pickering's farm 2 miles south of Emmet. The fire left the Pickering destitute of a home and destroyed all their clothing, bedding and household goods. The loss is between $600 and $700. . . Visitors to the county courtroom yesterday afternoon looked awry at a coil of heavy rope lying on the floor and wondered who had been hung. It was only the mute testimony in a case of the state against Edward Tierney, who was arrested at the instance of Mark Murphy and it was charged that he had stolen the rope which lay at the feet of the judge. The defendant proved to the court that he had bought the rope at McCafferty's and was discharged. . . "I want all who owe me to call and settle up now. If I go out with the bills some get offended for asking for my money in public, so don't wait for that; call now and settle up.—Con Keyes."

10,000 Gallons of Oil Applied

CHAMBERS—Several of the streets in Chambers have received a coat of oil. Ten thousand gallons of surfacing oil were applied to a north-south street, about a half-mile in length and extending from one edge of the town to the other.
In wet weather this street is almost impassable, according to the acting chairman of the village board, Edwin A. Wink.
Recent rains have slowed the project, but work now is nearing completion.
