

Matthews-Franssen Nuptials in Lincoln

Sacred Heart Catholic church, Lincoln, was the scene of the Saturday morning, October 6, wedding of Miss Magdalen Ann Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Matthews, of Lincoln, and James E. Franssen, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Franssen, of Greeley.

The bride was born at O'Neill and began her education at St. Mary's academy.

Rev. H. B. Hart performed the 10 a.m. ceremony in the presence of 300 guests. There was a program of nuptial music by Miss Maria Hassel, organist, and Miss Beverly Tracy, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of candlelight satin fashioned with an alencon lace bodice with a sequin trim, forming a yoke effect. The lace sleeves were pointed at the wrists and the skirt fell into a cathedral train.

Her double-tier veil of illusion fell from a cap of matching lace trimmed in seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

The altar was banked with baskets of pink gladiolus.

Miss Barbara Gazinski, of Omaha, was maid-of-honor and Miss Janet Ringler, Miss Jer'e Merritt and Miss Betty Jennings, all of Lincoln, were bridesmaids. They wore alike gowns of satin and embroidered net in the apple green, peacock, rose and antique gold shades. Their colonial bouquets were arranged to match their dresses.

Miss Patty McKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McKenzie, of O'Neill, was flower girl and Danny Joe Franssen, brother of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

The bridegroom, who is a navy reservist on duty at Treasure Island, Calif., wore his military uniform.

Gerald Franssen, of Greeley, attended his brother as bestman and Paul Franssen, of Greeley, another brother, Edwin Archer, of San Francisco, Calif., and Thomas McCarthy, of Lincoln, were groomsmen.

Mrs. C. Ray Williams, of Sheridan, Wyo., an aunt of the bride, assisted in the choir, and at the close of the ceremony Miss Colleen Williams, the bride's cousin, sang, "On This Day," while the bride turned to place a wreath at the foot of the Blessed Virgin. Following the ceremony there was a breakfast for 100 persons, including the wedding party and guests, in the church parlors.

A reception followed in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, also attended by 100 relatives and friends.

Assisting were: Mrs. C. Ray Williams; Mrs. Dean Streeter, of O'Neill, who had charge of the guest book; Mrs. Martha Soukup, of Lead, S. D., who poured; Mrs. Thomas Donohoe, of Lincoln, who presided at the 3-tier square 30-pound wedding cake; Mrs. Clyde Streeter, of O'Neill; Mrs. John Turner, of Lincoln, and others.

The cake was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Dean Streeter, of O'Neill; Mrs. Martha Soukup, of Lead, S.D.; Miss Kathryn and Peter Matthews, of O'Neill, daughter and son of Leo Matthews; Miss Mary Williams, of Hot Springs, S.D.; Mr. and Mrs. C. Ray Williams and daughter, Colleen, of Sheridan, Wyo.; Mrs. J. E. Perkins, of Hansen, Ida.; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Ericson, of Mullen; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Osenbaugh, of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hiltnerhoff, of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Franssen attended the University of Nebraska where they were members of the Palladian literary society and the Newman club. Mrs. Franssen is affiliated with Alpha Pi Omega business sorority.

For traveling, Mrs. Franssen wore a jungle flower suit with a matching hat and black accessories.

After October 10 the couple will reside in San Francisco, Calif.

Your Tavern Keeper Is a Good Neighbor

He has a home and family like you. He enjoys the same hobbies as you—the same vacations, the same entertainment, the same football games.

And, like you, he contributes generously to charities, and takes an active part in the life of your community.

He operates a legal, respected business. He pays large taxes into your community and state.

Like all good businessmen, your tavern keeper is constantly seeking ways to improve his place of business. He is sincere in his cooperation with the brewing industry's educational program aimed at encouraging approved tavern operation.

Through this program, he practices the latest and most modern methods of operation.

Yes, your tavern owner is a good neighbor. His cooperation in any civic endeavor should be encouraged.
