2,000 Cattle Offered At Thursday's Sale

There were 2,000 head of cattle offered at the O'Neill Livestock Market Thursday, October 11, in the regular weekly sale. It was also the day for the regular calf sale.

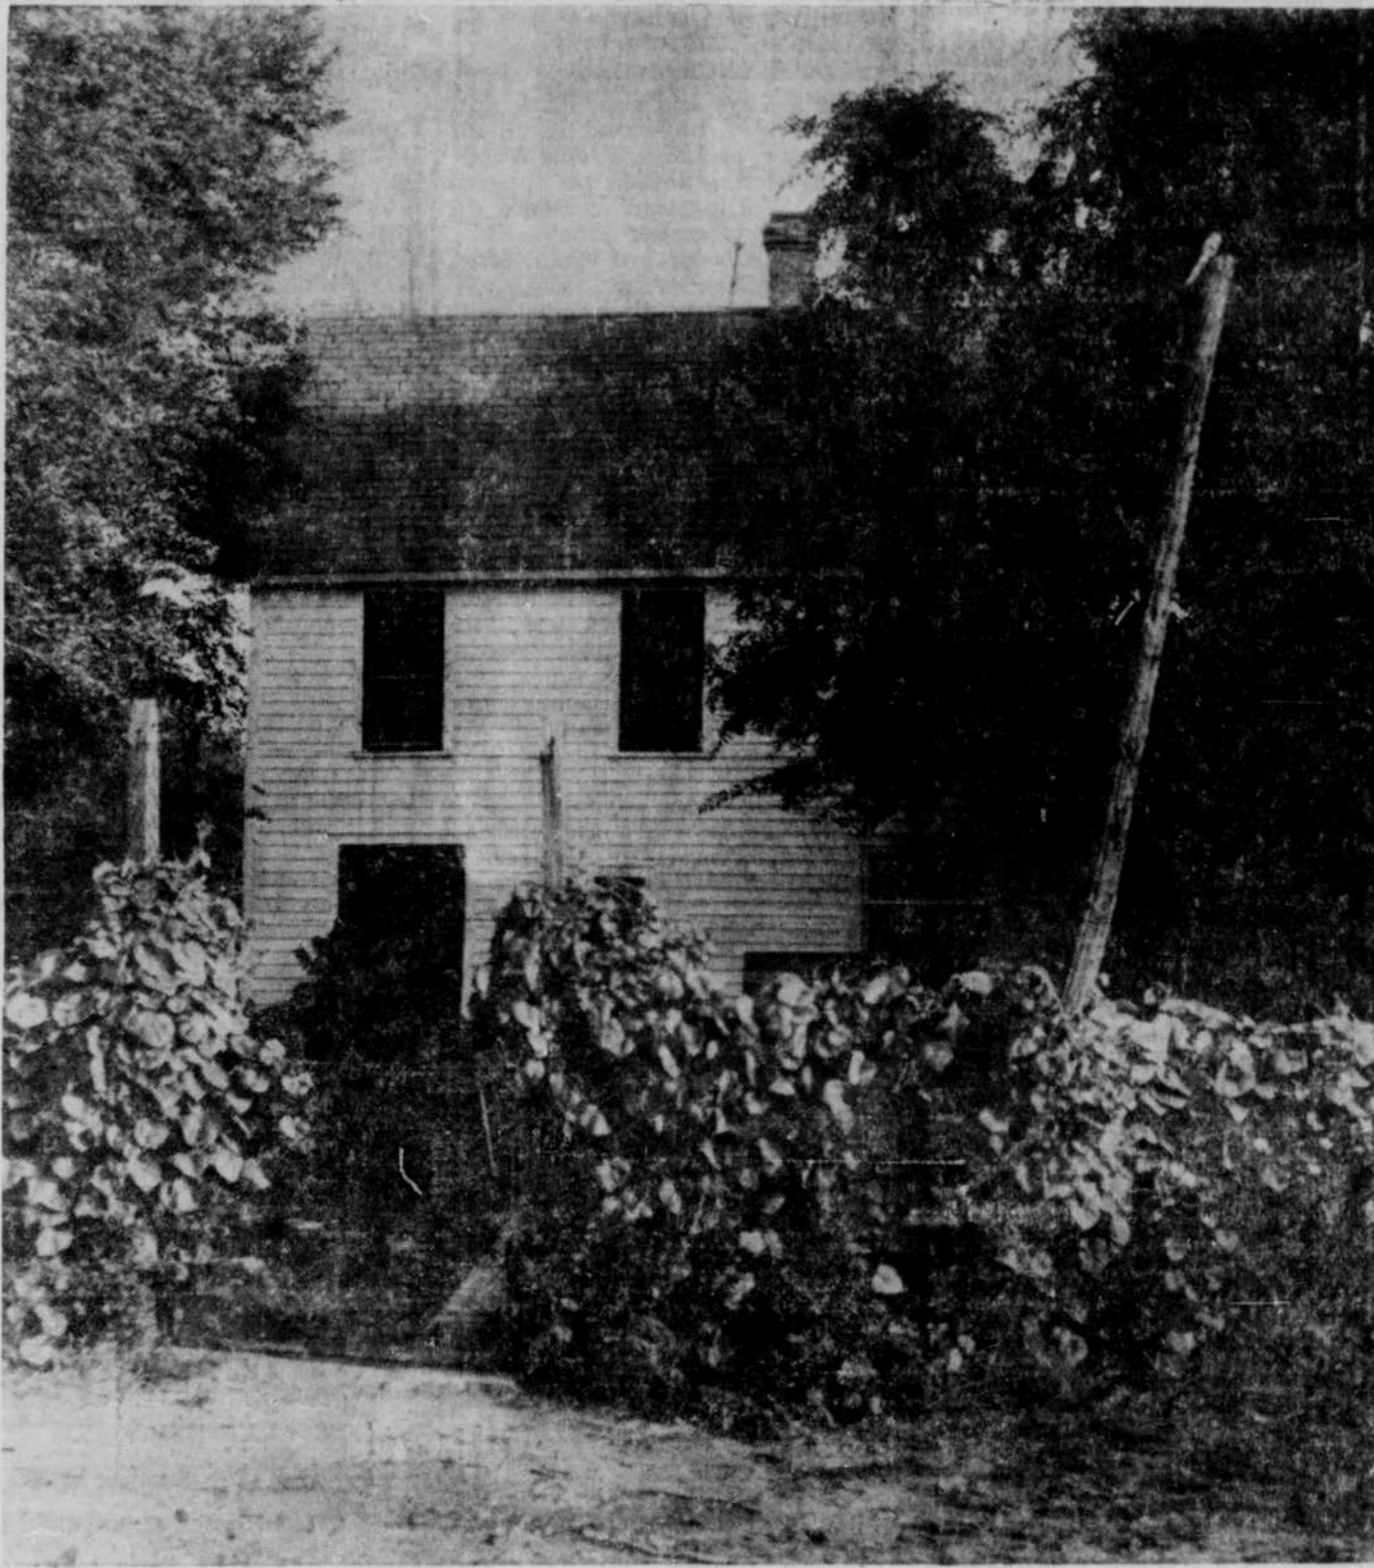

Good little steer calves were ranging from $40.00 to $44.80, but the majority were in the 41c and 42c bracket. Heifer calves were being quoted from 38c to 40c. The big end of these calves went to buyers who were on hand from Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois.

Good yearling steers, 700 to 750 pounds were selling from 36c on down to 34c. Yearling heifers, in the same weight, ranged from 32½c to 33½c. Old canner cows brought from 17c to 19c.

There were about 500 hogs on the market. Those spring pigs have not yet begun to roll. Top butchers were demanding $20.50 to $20.95; the 300 to 350-pounders sold for $19.50 to $20.00, and heavier kinds on down.

Lease Sale Might Pose Real Hardship

The remainder is pasture. He has built his cattle holdings to 80 head, milks 12 cows.

Last month, Mr. Mahony said, he wrote the state board of educational lands and funds. He asked if he would be refunded his lease money in the event his lease is sold to another person.

"At this time we know of no way the money paid to the state for these leases can be refunded. However, it may develop that an appropriation may be made at the next session of the legislature for the purpose of refunding money in equitable cases."

Mr. Mahony said he will bid on his lease when it is put up at auction here.

"Whatever I have to bid will set me in debt just that much. But no matter what, I hope to stay around this country."
