

Emmet Pupils Get Health Examinations

EMMET — The Golden Keys club met at the Emmet School, Friday, October 12, for the third time. All of the members were present.

The roll call was answered with one of the golden keys. A motion was made and seconded that at the next meeting the roll would be answered with the golden key, "If You Please."

At the end of the meeting, Ronald Murphy gave a book report about "White Fang." Linda Serck is to give the report at the next meeting. So far, Linda Serck is ahead in the book reading contest. She has read 12 books since school started.

The Emmet school received language work books. Pupils have been writing stories, and had just started on a grammar text. Last Monday pupils had their eyes, ears, teeth and throats examined by the teacher—Linda Serck, news reporter.

NEW HISTORICAL SOCIETY HOME . . . Members of the Nebraska State Historical Society attending the organization's annual meeting in Lincoln Saturday, October 02, will get a chance to see the progress being made on the construction of the society's new building. The structure, an architect's sketch of which is shown above, is being built at 15th and R streets, just east of the University of Nebraska student union. The front entrance will face the front entrance of the state capitol. Construction was begun August 25 and completion is scheduled for March, 1953. When completed, the building will house the society's library, museum, and administrative offices now in the state capitol. To be built of Indiana limestone, the building will consist of 2 stories and a basement. The first story, especially designed for museum purposes, will have no windows.

Lutheran Youth to Venus Meet

Leaguers from Christ Lutheran church and their pastor, Rev. Robert Olson, were present Sunday at the annual fall field day of zone N-6 of the Walther league held at Venus. The Young People's society of St. Paul's Lutheran church was hosts.

Festivities began early in the afternoon with a softball game followed by a mass choral union in which all attendants sang "To Thee We Sing." Reverend Olson and the Venus pastor, Rev. Carl Wolf, were in charge of the choral union.

Later the business meeting was conducted with Leonard Warneke, of Osmond, zone president, in charge. Miss Joyce Miller, of O'Neill, zone secretary, read the minutes. A zone choral union and a zone Christian growth conference are 2 of the projects of the group for the coming months.

A supper was served followed by a treasure hunt leading the young people to all parts of the nearby country. Plaques cut from native wood of Venus and inscribed with "Walther League Field Day Venus 1951" were given each attendant at the close of the treasure hunt.

A campfire sing followed as the leaguers sat on logs surrounding a huge campfire. Later the vesper service was conducted by Rev. Donald Christiansen, of Neligh.

Billies See Film on Hay Days, Fair—

The Sandhill Billies 4-H club, of Amelia, held the final meeting of the club year at the home of their leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Garwood, on Saturday, October 6. Each member revealed their club calf's name on answering roll call, showing all but 2 of the 19 members present.

The business meeting was called to order by President Zane Edwards, and included the return of exhibits to the home-makers and rope clubs and presentations of awards. Our leaders also named the 3 top ranking 4-H'ers which are as follows: First place, Nancy Cuatt; 2nd, Karen Garwood; 3rd, Marvalene Cuatt.

Ellen Gene and Duane Shermer and Bill Leirmann were all close runners for the 4th honors. We then worked to "finish up" of records.

Our club has earned 43 blue awards this club year, 33 red, and 10 white awards, with 4 purples and 1 gold medal won by Gene Shermer at state fair as top for tree and weed identification.

Duane and Ellen Shermer exhibited purple ribbon calves at the Chambers fair and Nancy Cuatt and Gene Shermer had purple ribbon calves at the O'Neill 4-H calf sale.—By Bill Leirmann, news reporter.
