Pheasant Season to Open October 26

Visualized by countless thousands but realized primarily by Nebraska's sporting populace is the state's nationally known pheasant season which gets un-derway Friday, October 26, simultaneously with the rising of the autumn sun.

Although Holt county is closed October 23. to pheasant hunting this year, Boone county on the south, Madison and Pierce to the east, and the east half of Knox county to the east will be open to hunting. hunting.

It will be to the hunter's benefit to disperse as much as possible especially as they are away from traditionally hunted areas in which the population may have been reduced by extremely heavy hunting pres-sure in the past 5 years.

Paul Gilbert, executive secretary of the Game commission, advises sportsmen to hunt in smaller groups of 3 and 4 on each men. A small group not only decreases the danger of accidents, but also reduces the hesitancy on the part of the farmer to grant them permission to hunt on his

Ice Follies' Greatest Show Coming To Omaha October 31st

"Ice Follies of 1952," the 16th edition of Shipstad's and Johnson's ice extravaganza will appear at Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum Wednesday, October 31st, through Tuesday, November 6th. Performances will be nightly at 8:30 with matinees Saturday, November 3rd and Sunday, November 4th at 2:15.

This will be the third appearance of "Ice Follies" in Omaha and this year's show is bigger and better than ever. "Ice Follies" is truly the "Show of Champions" with an all star cast of champion skaters including Aja Vrazanova, holder of two World Championships; Betty Schalow, Midwest Champion: Marilyn Ruth Take, Canadian Champion: Richard Dwyer, Pacific Coast Champion; and many others. Nebraska, too, has its interest in Ice Follies with the Scotvold twins, formerly of Omaha, and Richard Dwyer whose parents lived in North Platte.

"Ice Follies of 1952" not only has a host of skating stars but is truly a show for every member of the family from the youngest to the oldest. There are many huge and elaborate production numbers including among others: "A Visit with Santa Claus" starring the Scotvold twins. The costumes in this number are the most vivid red imaginable and you will see Santa Claus on skates and a toy train on the ice; "A Most Unusual Wedding" is an undersea phantasy with out of this world plastic costumes; "Yankee Doodle Dandee" with the Ice Folliettes is a study in precision; "Nipponese Sekku" (Japanase Festival) with gorgeous oriental setting and costumes: "Romance at the Royal Hawaiian" which includes the famed Follies Swing Waltz.

Prices for this great show are $3.60 for rinkside seats and box scats; $2.40 and $1.20 for reserved scats. Prices include Federal tax.

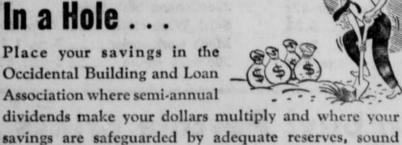

Tickets may be ordered by mail now from the Omaha Coliscum Corp., Box 5, Eimwood Station, Omaha 6, Nebraska. Orders should state clearly the number and price of tickets wanted and the performance for which tickets are desired. Check or money order made payable to the Omaha Coliseum Corp., and a self-addressed stamped return envelope should accompany all
