

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XLVIII.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 1928.

NO. 34.

The Ross E. Harris Food Market

Serving Food Stuff in the New Modern Convenient Way.
Offering at Very Special Prices for One Week, beginning

Friday, January 20th

No. 2 Cans Harvest Jem Corn

3 cans for 33c

Large Cans O. T. Sliced Pineapple

3 cans for 87c

Dwarfies (That New Whole Wheat Breakfast Food)

package 27c

Kre-Me-Kuts—Macaroni at only

per package 7c

Don't forget we are still looking for a name for that New Wonderful Coffee Enter this contest and win 10 Lbs.

FREE!

Phone 47 at O'Neill

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Jack Taylor is on the sick list.

Dr. Lubker was in Falls City the first of the week.

Robert Smith has been confined to his home on account of the flu.

Billy, the young son of George McNally has been quite ill during the past week.

Col. James Moore was on the Omaha markets again last week with a load of fine cattle.

Sumner Downey filed a petition for divorce from his wife, Stella Downey, on January 17th, charging desertion. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney L. C. Chapman.

Ernest Richter and sister, Mrs. Frank McDonald and niece, Mrs. Arthur Tomlinson, went to Grand Island, Monday, for treatment. Mr. Richter came home Tuesday evening.

Now Here

H. T. Taylor
Evangelistic Singer
Every Night at the Revival Meetings
M. E. Church
Come and Sing with Taylor

Peter Egger, of near Meek, lost three head of cattle last week with the corn stalk disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Warner entertained at dinner Sunday of last week for fourteen guests.

Past Grand Chief Patriarch Hanna, of the Encampment, visited friends a couple of days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hall spent Sunday at the home of Warren's mother, Mrs. Georgie Rasley.

A daughter was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Homer J. Ernst about nine miles northwest of O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Surber and Mrs. Herrick went to Spencer today to spend the day with relatives.

The State Teachers examinations will be held at Atkinson, Ewing and O'Neill, Saturday, January 21st.

Miss Catherine McCarthy is in Rochester, Minnesota, at Mayo's hospital taking treatment for goitre.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Porter entertained the county board of supervisors at dinner Wednesday evening.

Misses Marie and Florence Koziack, of Stuart, Nebraska, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Warner and family.

Uhl Brothers have purchased a new International truck which they will add to their draying and hauling equipment in the near future.

H. W. Tomlinson has been confined to his home during the past week with an attack of the flu. He is improved sufficient to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stein went to Omaha Sunday and returned Tuesday with a couple of Whippets.

Jake Erb has sold his 480 acre farm eleven miles north of O'Neill to Leslie Puckett, who has been operating the Duffy ranch northwest of O'Neill.

Mrs. Ben Grady entertained the Martez club at her home Monday evening. The high score prize at bridge was won by Mrs. Edward Campbell.

Mrs. Sarah Hammond was called to Creston, Iowa, last week by the illness of a brother, John Golden. Mr. Golden was formerly a resident of O'Neill.

Mrs. Elmer Surber entertained a few ladies Tuesday afternoon complimentary to her mother, Mrs. Herrick, of Waterbury, who is visiting her this week.

The Senior Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a candy sale at Ben Grady's store Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Guy Ballard entertained all the ladies of the Methodist church who had reached the age of sixty years, at the parsonage, on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Arthur Tomlinson and Roy Alder went to Grand Island Wednesday.

Mrs. C. J. Malone entertained the Tuesday club at her home Monday afternoon. Mrs. Chas. Downey, of Independence, Missouri, a former member, was a guest.

The O'Neill town basket ball team went over to Lynch last Thursday and defeated the Lynch cagers 15 to 7. The score at the end of the first half was O'Neill 8, Lynch 4.

The Ancient Mystic Order of Samaritans are arranging for a ceremonial at Atkinson and Chambers about the first of February. Dates will be announced later.

Mrs. Florence A. Case filed a petition for divorce from her husband, Floyd J. Case, on January 17th, charging non-support; Attorney L. C. Chapman represents the plaintiff.

Miss Cassie Gallagher came up from Omaha the latter part of last week where she has been for the past year and is visiting at the T. F. Birmingham home and with other O'Neill friends.

Manford Bellar was taken to Norfolk last week where he submitted to an operation for appendicitis last Friday. We understand that the young man is doing as well as could be expected.

A number of young ladies gave Miss Eileen Donlin a pre-nuptial shower at her home Wednesday evening, in honor of her approaching marriage on January 31st, to Thomas Green.

Sam Burge has sold his residence property in the eastern part of O'Neill to E. W. Sargent. Mr. Burge will hold a sale of household goods Saturday afternoon and with Mrs. Burge will move to Omaha.

Ewing Advocate: A traveling man coming from O'Neill at a high rate of speed hit a culvert north of Ewing and his Dodge coupe turned over three times, completely wrecking it. He escaped with a few bruises.

G. T. Simpson, residing five miles northwest of O'Neill has traded his farm for a store building and some business lots as well as some residence property in Council Bluffs. Possession will be given soon.

Mrs. Wm. Brutch returned home last Thursday from Stratford, Ontario, where she was called on December 29th by the serious illness of her father and mother. Her father passed away on the 29th a short time after her departure; her mother is considerably improved.

Frank Calkins, of Mt. Etna Iowa, was shaking hands with his former friends in O'Neill. Mr. Calkins was a resident of the Scottville neighborhood for seventeen years prior to the summer of 1922 when he sold his personal property and moved to Mt. Etna. He still owns a section of land near Scottville, occupied by John Pinkerman.

The demonstration and Food Show at the Ross Harris Grocery and Market last Saturday was attended by a large crowd of people throughout the day. A. F. Anderson representing May Brothers, of Fremont, was in charge of the demonstration and explained the merits of the Pathfinder line. Coffee and wafers were served during the day.

Ewing terrific explosion Monday morning about 2:30 jarred the windows in Ewing and vicinity, and has caused considerable comment this week. One party, awakened by the blast, claims that a bright light followed the explosion, which seems to strengthen the belief of many that the noise was caused by the explosion of a meteor somewhere in this vicinity.

At the regular meeting of O'Neill Encampment last Friday evening the following officers were installed: W. P. Curtis, C. P.; E. D. Henry, P. C. P.; Roy Warner, S. W.; Elmer Bowen, H. P.; Scribe, J. H. Meredith, Treasurer; Harry Bowen; Guide, Ira H. Moss; Harry Bowen, 1st W.; E. F. Porter, 2nd W.; E. D. Henry, 3rd W.; H. J. Zimmerman, 4th W.; L. G. Gillespie, O. G.; B. T. Winchell, I. G.; J. C. Harnish and J. S. Ennis G. of T.

The O'Neill High School basket ball team lost to Atkinson, at Atkinson, Wednesday night, by the close score of 16 to 15, with about 30 seconds to play the score stood 15 to 15, and Schwisow of O'Neill was fouled, Morgan of Atkinson making one of the two shots. This game was probably the best game ever played by the O'Neill high school on the Atkinson floor. All the members of the team played a hard and fighting game. Lorenz who has been the high scorer was very closely guarded from the start to finish, and was able to shoot only two field goals. Hancock made two field goals, Johnson, one field goal, and O'Donnell one field goal. O'Neill plays Tilden Tuesday night at the High School gymnasium, and will play the Atkinson game on the 17th of February. Both of these games should be hard fought contests and if you are interested in basketball be sure and give the boys your support.

The married folks held a dance at the K. C. hall Tuesday evening.

The members of Rebekah lodge entertained for Mrs. C. E. Downey at their lodge room Tuesday afternoon.

The sixth grade of the public school gave their geography teacher, Miss Dorothy Hall, a fruit shower last Tuesday afternoon.

At the annual meeting of stockholders of the O'Neill National Bank a short time ago the former officers and directors were reelected.

Dan Grady came up from Electric, Texas, last Monday and is visiting with O'Neill relatives and old friends. Mr. Grady was a resident of Ewing until about ten years ago.

T. V. Golden went to Omaha last week accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. F. J. Dishner, where he will receive treatment in a hospital. Mr. Golden has been in failing health for some time.

Mrs. Will Kaczor was taken to Norfolk this morning by Mr. Kaczor where she submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the Lutheran hospital today. Mrs. Kaczor has been feeling poorly for some time.

Harry Sisco has purchased a barber shop at Dorchester, Nebraska, and left Wednesday for that city to take charge of the business. They expect to move to Dorchester in a couple of weeks where they will make their home.

At a regular meeting of the Odd Fellows lodge last week the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Ben Wayman, N. G.; Alva Winchell, V. G.; Clarence Zimmer, R. S. N. G.; Ray Wayman, L. S. N. G.; Dale Bressler, R. S. V. G.; A. E. Bowen, L. S. V. G.; W. P. Curtis, warden; C. E. Yantzi, conductor; J. C. Harnish, secretary; J. S. Ennis, treasurer; Harry Bowen, Chaplain; Elmer Bowen, Past Grand; R. N. Brittell, I. G.; L. G. Gillespie, O. G.; H. J. Zimmerman, trustee.

Rev. J. H. Ostdiek, superintendent of the Catholic schools of the diocese of Nebraska has been the guest of St. Mary's Academy for the past two days, visiting the various departments and examining the children. Rev. Ostdiek found the discipline, scholarship, equipment and building in excellent condition. The glee club and pupils of expression of the music department gave a program Tuesday evening in his honor. This is the Reverend's first visit to O'Neill and he expressed himself as more than pleased at the cordial reception given him by Monsignor Cassidy and St. Mary's Academy.

Miss Minnie Neilson, of Fargo, North Dakota, field representative of the National Congress of Parent-Teachers Association, was here Wednesday and Thursday this week helping County Superintendent Luella Parker organize several rural organizations. An association was formed at District No. 88 and District No. 110 and also at Amelia. Miss Neilson gave very interesting talks to Public High school, St. Mary's academy, Ewing high school, O'Neill Parent-Teachers association and Chambers high school. Miss Neilson is a very interesting speaker and conveys some very good thoughts in her talks.

JOS. SCHOLLMAYER SUFFERS HEAVY LOSS FROM CORN STALK DISEASE LAST WEEK

Perhaps the heaviest loss from corn stalk disease in this part of the state was suffered by Joe Schollmeyer of Scottville, 22 miles northeast of O'Neill, when eighteen head of cattle valued around $75.00 each, died between four o'clock Friday afternoon and Saturday morning of last week. Two more were sick at that time.

The herd consisting of fifty-eight head have been running in another stock field all fall without a loss. On Wednesday of last week they were turned into another field, everything went well until Friday afternoon when they began dying.

The loss is a heavy one for Mr. Schollmeyer as he carried no insurance.

The Frontier has heard of but a small amount of corn stalk disease this winter as compared to former years, although a few cases were reported early in the winter.

O'NEILL REBEKAH'S LAUGH AT NO. "13"

Number "13" has no terrors for the members of the O'Neill Rebekah lodge. Last Friday night thirteen members of the lodge drove to Chambers over Highway No. 13. There was no particular difficulties experienced by the party and all seemed to enjoy the evening. The occasion was the installation of the Chambers lodge by the deputy grand president.

FILINGS IN PRIMARY CLOSE MARCH FIRST

Filings for the various offices of the county and state that will be voted upon in the coming primary election of April 10th, will close on March 1. The filing must be made at least forty days before the date of the primary election which is April 10, 1928.

Up to the time of going to press there has been but one filing made in Holt county.

Get 'Em! Pet 'Em! Forget 'Em!

It's leap year! Be careful! The girls have seen Clara Bow in GET YOUR MAN and they're running wild!

Clara Bow

—in—

"Get Your Man"

Royal Theatre

Sun.-Mon., Jan. 22-23

Anton Toy is still confined to his home on account of heart trouble following the flu.

F. J. Sexsmith and Ross E. Harris made a business trip to Ainsworth and Long Pine Wednesday.

George Shoemaker and daughter, Miss Lenore, returned home this morning from St. Louis, Missouri, where Miss Lenore has been receiving treatment.

A number of the members of the local chapter of the Izaak Walton League attended the elk banquet at Atkinson last Monday evening. State President F. J. Brady and State Lecturer F. S. Gatenby, gave interesting talks following the banquet. Those present from O'Neill were: Dr. F. J. Kubitschek, M. H. Horiskey, Ira H. Moss, Roy Griffin, D. H. Clauson, E. W. Browne, Tom Joyce, Peter Duffy, J. D. Cronin, W. E. Conklin, M. F. Kirwin.

All In Honor of The "Lone Eagle"

Photos from Wide World Photos, St. Louis, Mo.—A view of the Lindbergh collection of medals, trophies and gifts from admirers the world over, which are shown in the collection of the Missouri Historical Society at the Jefferson Memorial in St. Louis.

SEPT. OCT. NOV. DEC. JAN. FEB. - MA

BANK BOOK

ALL THE YEAR 'ROUND

Your Savings labor night and day for you at The O'Neill National Bank. And you have no worries for the tried and tested resources of a great institution make a rock-firm foundation for your deposits.

O'Neill National Bank

SERVICE THAT MAKES FRIENDS