

TEXAS BOY BALKS SANTA CLAUS BANDIT HAUL

Woodrow Harris (upper left), aged 14, of Rising Star, Texas, prevented bandits posing as Santa Claus from getting away with $150,000 loot from First National Bank of Cisco, Texas. The bandits seized Laverne Comer, aged 12 (lower left), and Emma May Robinson, aged 10 (beside her), and used them as a shield in making their getaway after the robbery, in which nine persons were shot down, including one bandit, two officers and six civilians. Upper center circle shows Louis E. Davis of Wichita Falls, one of the bank robbers, as he lies in a Cisco hospital recovering from gunshot wounds.

(International Illustrated News)

LAST RESTING PLACE OF HENRY JUDD GRAY!

Top photo shows grave diggers preparing cemetery plot at Rosedale, N. J., for burial of Henry Judd Gray, executed at Sing Sing for the murder of Albert Snyder. Lower photo shows the funeral ceremonies, the morbid crowd gathered around the tent that sheltered Gray's immediate relatives during rites which were held in a downpour of rain.

(International Newsreel)

Houston and Harmony Doesn't Like Hindu Slain by Hickman

That's the battle cry of the Democrats following the love feast at their Jackson Day dinner in Washington, and Chairman Clem Shaver of the National Committee has started in with a zip to get things set for the convention in the Texas city.

(International Newsreel)

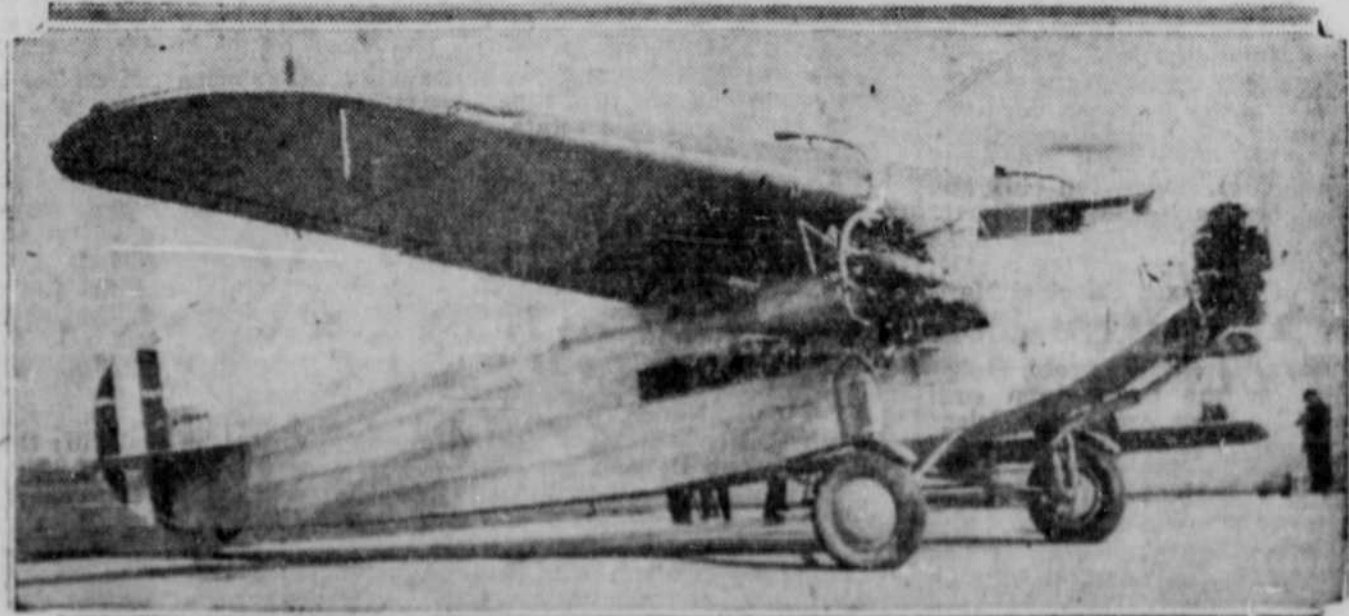

Mrs. Mary J. Caulfield of Philadelphia (above), aunt of Nancy Anne Miller of Seattle, Wash., declares that she hopes and prays her niece won't carry out her intention of marrying the former maharajah, Sir Tukoji Rao Holkar, once ruler of the realm of Indore.

(International Illustrated News)

Ivy Thoms (above), Los Angeles druggist, who was shot and killed a year ago by William Edward Hickman, the Kansas City youth, who is also held for the kidnapping and murder of Marian Parker. Hickman is said to have confessed the slaying.

(International Newsreel)

TYPE OF PLANE USED IN NICARAGUA

This tri-motored Fokker bombing plane is one of the type which are being used in Nicaragua by the Marines in their efforts to dislodge Gen. Sandino. It was in planes such as this that the Marines were able to transport some of their wounded to the hospital.

(International Newsreel)

In Torture Slaying

Robert H. Pitts of Greenup, Ky. (top), accuses his housekeeper, Mrs. Marie Frazier (lower), of torturing his three-year-old baby, Mary, and killing her. Authorities declare both of them plotted to do away with the child. The shocking tragedy has stirred Kentucky, Ohio and Virginia.

(International Illustrated News)

Shooting Costs $4.00

Countess Frederic de Janze, former Miss Alice Silverthorne of Chicago, ran up against French chivalry when, after shooting Vincent de Trafford, member of titled British family, she was found guilty in Paris, but let off with a fine of $4.00.

(International Illustrated News)

Unmoved by Tragedy

John B. Grayson, divorced husband of Mrs. Frances W. Grayson, flustered in attempt to reach Newfoundland, failed to express much concern over her fate, declaring that she is a stoic. Grayson is a postmaster at Warrenton, Va.

(International Newsreel)

KNOCKING 'EM COLD IN EUROPE

Mado Minty, dancer with the Opera Comique, registers this unique pose for the benefit of her press agent. Mado's quite a "wow" in Páree, and is going to do her stuff for the remaining crowned and uncrowned heads of Europe on a tour through the capitals.

(International Illustrated News)

ACTOR REUNITED WITH DAUGHTER

"Meeting my own daughter was one of the dramatic moments of my life," said Lou Tellegen when he met his daughter, Diana Tellegen, for the first time in fourteen years. Diana is the daughter of his first wife, and although they had been corresponding with each other constantly, movie contracts kept him so busy that he had not been able to meet her.

(International Illustrated News)

ANOTHER FACTOR IN G. O. P. RACE

Political wisacres are watching with interest the boom now developing for Senator Charles E. Curtis of Kansas for the Republican presidential nomination. Curtis already has started an invasion of the east, his friends having organized in New York to start an active campaign to make easterners "Curtis-conscious."

(International Illustrated News)