CELIA NEWS.

Frank Henderson marketed a load of hogs Tuesday. They were hauled by the community truck.

The groundhog winter has moderated considerably and under the circumstances, the snow will soon be a thing of the past.

The Conrad Frickel family had quite a spell of the flu, or some other malady last week which affected all the members alike. We are glad to note they are over it now and all up and amoving.

This community is looking forward to some real entertainment soon. A fiddle equipment with two bows and three strings was knocked down and sold to Frank Henderson on the Jim Hood sale Thursday.

In discussing the prospective candidate for president the other day, Ivan Dickerson, cashier First National Bank, said that most everybody was suggested except himself and J. V. Johnson. This is a serious oversight and should be brought to the attention of the powers that be.

D. F. Scott's new barn is now complete, and it is a very comfortable and convenient structure, having room for over twenty milk cows on one side, besides calves and horses, grain and hay. His father, George Scott, who is carpenter by trade, built it. Mr. Scott is now putting up some out-buildings on the Ben Riser ranch over on the Niobrara river.

A large crowd attended the party at the Bert Miller home on Saturday night and a good time was reported.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Derall on February 14. This makes eleven children for them, all living.

Miss May McGowan is building a new house, which will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shults, who expect to farm there this year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson and Cecil Marrow were evening callers at the C. E. Thomson home on Monday.

Several of the schools in this vicinity observed Patrons day with an appropriate program. Miss Marlett teacher in District 27 had a very interesting program and several visitors were there to enjoy it.

Mrs. George Baird passed away at her home on Monday. Although Mrs. Baird has been in poor health for several years, her death came as a shock and her husband and son, Franklin, have the sympathy of the entire community.

Those attending the birthday anniversary dinner for Mr. A. L. Rouse, of O'Neill, on Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rouse and children, of Inman, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Young and children, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rouse and children and Miss Maude Rouse and Arthur Rouse, of Meek. The law is very clear on this, and there is no question but what the course you are pursuing is strictly in accordance with the statutes.

STATE OF NEBRASKA
ADAM McMULLEN,
GOVERNOR.

Lincoln, January 21st, 1928.

TO ALL COUNTY TREASURERS:

We have had considerable complaint from various parts of the state that applicants for auto registration have, in some cases, registered in a county other than that in which they reside. In cases of this kind, in effect the applicant has not registered at all—any more than if he had paid his land taxes by making payment in county other than that in which they land is located.

This letter is in no way personal, and not directed particularly to anyone, only calling your attention to be especially careful that the applicant for registration resides in your county.

Very truly yours
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORK,
R. L. COCHRAN,
39-2 Secretary & State Engineer.
