

Sea Sickness Conquered by Saxophone Symphony

ROGER RAULIN

Kiss and make up, why can't we kiss and make up? I'm so lonely and I'm awfully blue.

French Line Officer Says Jazz Has Banished Mal-de-Mer

New York City.—Jazz has banished the last vestige of sea sickness. No more will misgivings prevent the would-be traveler, always provided he can dance, from crossing the ocean, asserts Roger Raulin, Commissaire of the S. S. Paris of the French Line.

The reason? Why, if you dance to modern American rhythm, your balance centers have already become accustomed to a motion like that of the sea for the ocean heave and the foxtrot roll are closely akin, if we are to believe Mr. Raulin.

The Paris is known as the celebrity ship, because it has brought more European celebrities to our shore than any other vessel afloat. It has been Mr. Raulin's job to accustom many of these foreign dignitaries to the modern dances.

"The motion of American dancing accustoms the balance centers in back of the ear to the motion of the sea," explains Mr. Raulin. "I have told this to people coming to America and they have laughed at me, but on their return trip after months of dancing through their meals, they laugh no longer except with joy for they can then travel without mal-de-mer."

"I have one special tune, 'Kiss and Make Up,' that the orchestra plays when I am trying to introduce beginners to dance motion and show them how to protect themselves against an occasional tilt of the boat."

—'twas fun to buy on time. One day I saw an antique vase three thousand years of age; a thing of beauty and of grace—such things were all the rage. So thinking not of what I owed, of grocers and their dues, my ready cash I promptly blotted for something of no use. I started home with wild delight, at last I owned a prize; to me it was a wondrous sight, its color, shape and size. Arriving home, to my dismay, I found the whole front yard possessed by men demanding pay for butter, cheese and lard. I didn't have a rusty sou to ease my awful plight; they told me they must have some dough or they would jug me tight. And so from jail this message rings, kind friends please give it heed; don't spend your cash for useless things and owe for what you need.—Brick Smith.

—Thursday-Friday, March 8-9—
Bebe Daniels in
"SHE'S A SHIEK"
Remember the shiek who got his gals by hook or by heel? Imagine Bebe as a Sheba who gets her men young, trains 'em well, treats 'em swell and tells 'em nothing. She's a shiek—whee!

Saturday, March 10th
Buck Jones in
"BLOOD WILL TELL"
Hard fists and a soft heart—cool headed courage and white hot love—this is the blend in a picture of strangely mingled emotions.

BIG SUPER SPECIAL
Sunday, Monday, Tuesday,
March 11, 12, 13
Garry Cooper and Fay Wray in
"LEGION OF THE CONDEMNED"
Cruikshank says—"I have seen 'The Legion of the Condemned.' Alone in the projection room, with no accompaniment saving the whirring of the machine, it held me enthralled, enraptured. Every heart string was tense—all nerves taut. Viewer of a thousand films, it was with difficulty that I refrained from leaping to cheer all the genius responsible for the creation of this masterpiece. God, what a picture."

Wednesday, March 14th—
Bob Steele in
"DRIFTING SANDS"
The mightiest poundin' roarin' thunderin' thriller of his triumphant career. Bring the family.

Thursday, March 15th
Thomas Meighan in
"WE'RE ALL GAMBLERS"
East Side and Park Avenue riding the roulette of life! Spin the wheel and see what happens! Ninety-nine out of every hundred are born gamblers!

Friday-Saturday, March 16-17 —
BIG SPECIAL—SYD CHAPLIN IN
"THE BETTER 'OLE"
Chaplin has made a rip-roaring comedy. It is by all odds his best and cleverest picture.

STATE OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN

February 2, 1928.
Mr. W. E. Conklin, County Treasurer, O'Neill, Nebraska.
Dear Sir: This is to confirm conversation with you over the telephone this morning, at which time I told you that you were right in charging $15.00 for the first 4000 pounds gross load of trucks, plus 50c for each 100 pounds in excess of 4000 pounds. The law is very clear on this, and there is no question but what the course you are pursuing is strictly in accordance with the statutes.
Very truly yours,
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
R. L. COCHRAN,
Secretary and State Engineer.
