Tom Sullivan went to Ewing last week to superintend the running of cement for the new state aid bridge east of Ewing.

Rev. C. W. Lowerie, of the Fullerton Avenue Presbyterian church of Chicago, filled the pulpit at the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning.

Frank Biglin has recovered enough from his operation to be permitted to go down stairs. He called Mrs. Biglin by long distance telephone the first of the week.

The Glee Clubs of the O'Neill Public School will present an operetta entitled "Sylvia" at the K. C. opera house next Tuesday evening. The operetta is an exceptionally good one and should be well patronized.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Daughters Wednesday evening, the organization presented Mrs. Hayden with a gold pin as a token of love and friendship. Mrs. Hayden will leave Friday morning for Sioux City, where she will make her future home.

A radio announcement was made from Norfolk this noon over WJAG that Glendolyn Pharis, of Leigh, five years old, was kidnapped at 8:30 this morning by a fellow about twenty-five years old, driving a master six Buick, east out of Leigh, carrying an Iowa license plate.

John N. Stauffer has leased a storage room of James Ryan and has arranged with several wholesale houses to conduct a storage room where carload lots will be received from the wholesale houses and delivered to the local merchants as desired. O'Neill has long needed a place of this kind.

The following schools will take part in the district declamatory contest, to be held at O'Neill, March 23: Atkinson, Ewing, Orchard, Clearwater and St. Mary's. The extemporaneous and oratorical contests will be held at 2:00 p. m. and the dramatic and humorous contests will be held at 7:30 p. m. at the high school.

Mellor Motor Company

The Arbuthnot and Reka Motor Company tell us that the car business has been quite good during the past week. They sold a new Chevrolet to S. M. Knudsen, of Page, and a truck to Walter Richards, of Chambers, and a couple of used cars last week.

Mrs. Scofield, mother of Jesse and Ralph Scofield of this city, flew to Platte, South Dakota, with the aviators who were doing commercial flying here over Sunday of last week. Mrs. Scofield expects to visit relatives in Platte.

LOCAL NEWS.

The management of Riverside Park over on the Niobrara river wish us to state that the dance scheduled for March 17th has been posted to a later date.

John Carr and Patrick Regan drove up from Stafford Tuesday.

Mrs. R. R. Morrison accompanied by Mrs. F. J. Dishner and Mrs. C. E. Stout drove to Omaha Sunday for a visit with friends and relatives.

Miss Tess Hayden went to Sioux City this morning where she will reside.

M. J. Holland, of Omaha, spent Wednesday at the home of his sister, Mrs. P. C. Donohoe.

Word from Omaha this morning of Mrs. Martin is to the effect that she is not improving any.

William Gatz is putting a full basement under his building occupied by the S. L. Berry real estate office.

Col. James Moore was on the Omaha markets Wednesday of last week with a car of cattle and a car of hogs.

Rev. C. W. Lowerie and wife of Chicago, are visiting with his sister, Mrs. J. A. Donohoe and old time friends in the city.

Mrs. E. J. Velder and sister, Miss Nora Dillon went to Omaha on the excursion last Saturday and enjoyed a couple of days visiting in the metropolis.

The county board of supervisors have arranged with Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hough to care for several old people who are unable to care for themselves and who are not financially able to maintain a home of their own.

Tom Whaley accompanied by his two sons, Delbert and Mayo, drove up from Sedalia, Missouri, last Saturday for a few days visit at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Whaley, northeast of O'Neill. Mr. Whaley returned home the first of the week, while the boys will remain at the M. A. Whaley home during the summer.

Edward W. Browne district manager for the Interstate Power Company tells The Frontier that the towns of Spencer, Lynch and Bristow were connected with the highline Wednesday and are now receiving twenty-four hour service. The Interstate Power Company are also building a sub-station at Burke, South Dakota, and will soon connect the village with the highline. New towns are being added quite regularly to the company's system. There is an abundance of water in the Niobrara river to handle many times the business that the company can ever expect to secure.
