Phone 47 O'Neill, Nebraska

Charles Hancock thinks he is not superstitious but he changes his mind after wearing the ancient Scarab "Kaa" in "The Hoodoo."

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Willging and children departed the first of the week for their new home in Tilden, where Mr. Willging will operate a jewelry store.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zimmerman and son, Billy, of Hastings, Nebraska, spent last week at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Zimmerman. They returned home Sunday.

District Judge Dickson and Court Reporter Ted McElhane, went to Bassett the first of the week where they held a short term of court. They expect to hold court in Butte today or tomorrow.

Mrs. Emma Henderson from Rushville, Nebraska, is here helping Mrs. E. R. Riley care for her sister, Mrs. J. A. Naylor, who has been confined to her bed with "Flu" for the past two weeks.

The O'Neill Electric Shoe Repair shop moved to the old Merchants hotel building the first of the week where they are open for business. They were formerly located in the Wise building.

W. H. Stein and W. J. Biglin drove up from Omaha Tuesday with a Studebaker De Lux funeral coach for the Biglin undertaking business. The new coach does not resemble the old type of funeral cars but has the appearance of a large sedan.

We understand that Ed. Linquist, a former general merchant of this city, has traded for the J. C. Donohoe farm three miles north of Opportunity and has moved into the place. Mr. Linquist was in O'Neill a few days ago shaking hands with his old friends.

The Girl Scouts of Atkinson will make their first public appearance in a Comedy Drama, "Mammy's Little Wild Rose," to be given at the Emmet auditorium Monday, April 9th. A well spent evening is assured to all those who attend. Prices 25c and 40c.

State Engineers J. D. Osenbaugh and F. D. Pelz have been busy surveying Highway No. 13, south from O'Neill, for the past two weeks preparatory for the grading of the highway, which will perhaps start during the latter part of this year or the first of next.

Loren and Al Richardson drove to O'Neill Tuesday evening. Loren and family reside at Olathe, Kansas, while Al has been wintering in Missouri. Mr. Richardson tells The Frontier that his five year old son, Arnold, fell from his Shetland pony about three weeks ago and broke his arm, but is recovering nicely.

Mrs. Georgia Rasley, proprietress of the Royal theatre, has been showing some of the latest and most up-to-the-minute pictures at her theatre; many of the best pictures are shown at the Royal before they appear in Omaha and Lincoln. Mrs. Rasley takes a great interest in getting the best for her patrons.

Miss Fern Hubbard came up from Lincoln Tuesday evening to spend her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hubbard.

Professor and Mrs. Spigot with their seven little Spigotts will create a sensation at the K. C. Hall, Thursday, April 12th. Be sure to see "The Hoodoo," presented by the Junior Class of O'Neill High School.

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Pettibone, of Sidney, Nebraska, stopped in O'Neill today for a short visit with friends. They are enroute home from a visit with relatives in Madison. Dr. Pettibone also attended a session of a Study club in Norfolk this week.

BRICK BATS.

Jim Carn was sore at Melvin Jay, the reasons are unknown; the trouble started one spring day when they were both alone. So Jim, as men are wont to do, saw Jay in bitter light; he saw in him no purpose true, no thought or action right. And then one day a chance appeared to tell a sordid tale, and as Jim told a scandal leered that turned his hearers pale. The folks who heard with wild dismay were shocked to say the least, yet stopped their friends upon the way and spread it west and east. The story spread and daily grew to monstrous shape and size; and not a word of it was true, such is the power of lies. In days that passed the truth arose and silenced scandal's flame; yet Melvin Jay still feels its blows, it left him worn and lame. Jim Carn who first made up the tale is known both far and near as just a liar who should in jail end up his punk career. Our enemies with ease we sting by gossip's poisoned fang; yet if we do we'll find the thing will prove a boomerang.—Brick Smith.

Word was received by O'Neill friends that Peter Lamp, of Mapleton, Iowa, passed away in a Sioux City hospital last Friday. Mr. Lamp was quite well known in O'Neill and parts of Holt county. He was a heavy land owner in the vicinity of Ewing, and also in the northwestern part of the county.

T. T. Waid expects to leave Friday for Winter, Wisconsin, where he will spend the summer with his daughter, Mrs. Helen Deland. "77" established a record and came prominently into the limelight in that section of Wisconsin last year when he succeeded in landing a young "muskie" weighing—well, reports differ on the exact amount, but it was a big one. Wink has agreed to keep us informed as to his piscatorial activities of prominence while he is in the north.
