MARY LANGAN.

Mary Langan died at the home of her parents, Michael Langan, Sr., at Maple Grove, Nebraska, Saturday April 14th, after a long illness.

She was born at Maple Grove, Nebraska, April 21, 1889, and had she lived until April 21st would have been thirty-nine years old. She was bedridden for the past three years, suffering with pernicious anemia. Everything possible that medical aid could do was done for her by her parents, friends and relatives, but of no avail.

She was of a very lovable disposition and carried her cross with smiling patience. The ways of Providence are sometimes peculiar; He calls both young and old to Himself.

The funeral was held Monday at 10 o'clock a. m. at St. Patrick's church at O'Neill, Nebraska, where a requiem High Mass was said by Rev. Father M. J. Brady, who also preached the sermon.

The following cousins of the deceased acted as pallbearers: William and David Langan, J. J. Dennis, Rich Landan, John Hynes and Dennis Hynes.

The following near relatives and friends from a distance were present at the funeral services: Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dennis and Mary Dennis, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kloke, Mrs. Marie Rees, Norfolk; P. H. Langan and daughter; John Michael, Martin and Richard Langan, Mrs. Mary Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Jos Rhode, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johnson, Colome, South Dakota; John Langan, Gregory, South Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Langan, David, Jno. and Patrick, Spencer, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. John Rotherham, Amelia; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Engelgan, Clearfield, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Dillon, Jordan, South Dakota; Mrs. James Herman, Colome, South Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Hynes, Tilden, Nebraska.

She leaves to mourn her death her father and mother and one brother, Michael Langan, who also resides at Maple Grove, Nebraska; also numerous relatives in Nebraska and South Dakota.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Third Grade—We are glad to have Vernon Sisco back with us again. The pupils who were neither absent nor tardy for the past six weeks are: George Densberger, Delta Gunn, Ruth Osenbaugh, Andrew Youngkin.

Fourth Grade—Mrs. Clarence Bergstrom was a visitor in our room Wednesday. We have new Penmanship Manuals which are especially planned for third and fourth grade penmanship. Tuesday we had a lesson in nature drawing. Our subject was a vase containing pussy willows.

Eighth Grade — Hulén Abercrombie entered the eighth grade Monday. Marie Williams received a letter from Sheffield, England, in response to one she had written. This letter was much enjoyed by the class. The following received Final Certificates from the Palmer School of Writing at Chicago: Cecil Sparks, Elizabeth Henry, Fern Wilkinson, Helen Hancock, Marie Williams and Geraldine Madison. Improvement certificates were earned by Max Ballard, Phyllis Hough, Marjory Brittle and John Harbottle. Clarence Saunto received a Progress Pin and Scott Hough, Garland Bressler, Delmar Spangler and Charles Meyers each received a Palmer button.

Seventeen High School Pupils drove to Ainsworth to compete in the High School Scholastic Contest held Saturday, April 14th. Miss Beighley and Miss Turner chaperoned the groups. Due to the few schools that were entered in this meet there is at present a feeling that the Ainsworth district should be combined with the Wayne district. This would reduce the number of winners from those schools up in this part of the state. The places won and by whom will be given in this account next week.

An Inter-Class Track and Field meet will be held at the Fair Grounds, Friday, April 20. It will prove to be a real contest between the Juniors and Seniors, due to two or three hard fought battles on the School Campus during the past week—as to which class would reign supreme.

"The Hoodoo." "The Hoodoo" was presented by the Junior Class of the O'Neill High School, April 12th, at the K. C. Hall. The play was a financial as well as an artistic success and much credit should be given to both the coach and sponsor, not alone for the excellent coaching but for the selection of the characters as well.

Charles Hancock as Brighton Early, is engaged to Amy Lee—Amolia Merrill, niece of Mrs. Perrington. Shine, played by Beryl Winchell, at whose home the wedding is to take place. The guests are arriving and among them Professor Solomon Spigget—Virgil Johnson, a cousin of Brighton's and an authority on Egypt. He presents Brighton with an Egyptian Scarab as a wedding gift, and then the trouble begins. Everyone who wears the scarab is "hoodooed." Brighton finds himself confronted by a former sweetheart Dodo de Graft, a chorus girl—Neva Oberly, who threatens suit unless Brighton pays her $30,000 for some of his former letters. Brighton's friend, Billy Jackson—Francis Tenborg, wears the pin and finds himself engaged to three girls at once. A burglar—Shobert Edwards, old Sauty Claus, enters and apparently is getting away with all the brie-a-brac until he takes the scarab and is caught. At the end, however, all the plots are unraveled and the "hoodoo" properly buried. The parts were all played excellently and the whole production showed much hard work and concentrated effort since only three weeks were spent in rehearsing.
