Quicker Truck Trips and Faster Plowing

RED CROWN ETHYL GASOLINE gives more power to any motor, in passenger car, truck or tractor. It means less time on the road and faster trips. It means more acres plowed in a day. It means lower fuel costs every time you use any motor-driven machine.

This improved motor fuel sets new power standards for old motors and new. Even a carbon-choked motor will give lots of power with never a fuel "knock" when you use Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline. High compression is turned into extra power.

This wonder fuel is a combination of always reliable, quick-starting Red Crown Gasoline and Ethyl Brand of Anti-Knock Compound — a matchless fuel for smooth power and economical motor operation. Use it exclusively and your motors will deliver more power at less cost.

Sold by reliable dealers and Red Crown Service Stations everywhere in Nebraska.

MRS. HARRIETT AUGUSTA MARTIN

Funeral services for Mrs. Harriett Augusta Martin, who passed away in the Nicholas Senn hospital in Omaha on Wednesday of last week, were held from the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. W. Ballard, pastor.

As stated in The Frontier of last week Mrs. Martin was confined in the hospital in Omaha for about six weeks. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of her death. She was aged 75 years, 6 months and 15 days.

Mrs. Martin was born in Big Indian, Ulster County, New York, September 27, 1852. She was married to Bennett Martin, at Kingston, New York, on September 29, 1869. She came to Holt county with her husband and family in 1877 and located upon a homestead a short distance southeast of Meek postoffice where they resided for a number of years. They later moved to O'Neill where Mrs. Martin resided until her death.

sent to the home by friends from away as well as from O'Neill.

The children were all present at the funeral services of their mother excepting Merritt, Buffalo, Wyoming, who was unable to reach here on account of a blizzard that swept over Wyoming.

Active Pallbearers: Ross Harris, Roy Warner, A. V. Virgin, Forest Smith, Loyd Gillespie, C. P. Hancock. Honorary Pallbearers: W. E. Conklin, E. W. Sargent, W. P. Curtis, Harry Bowen, C. C. Millard, J. C. Harnish. Those present from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blitzkie, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Blitzkie, Lee Blitzkie, Spencer, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Farr, Bonesteel, South Dakota; Mrs. Wm. Bradstreet, Spencer, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stansbury and sons, Merritt and Robert; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Stansberry, Mrs. Reinhold Schutz, Norfolk, Nebraska.

MRS. ELIZABETH A. CLEVISH.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Clevish, aged 80 years, 6 months and 6 days, passed away in the state hospital in Norfolk, Nebraska, Tuesday morning, April 17, 1928, following an illness that has confined her to her bed for the past three months; previous to that she has been able to be about her room and in fairly good health. The cause of her death was given as cerebral hemorrhage.

Elizabeth A. Cowger was born in the state of Indiana, October 11, 1847. She was united in marriage to William F. Clevish November 15, 1872, at Lincoln, Nebraska; she with her husband and family resided upon a homestead in Seward county, until 1884, when they emigrated to Holt county and located upon a ranch sixteen miles north of O'Neill where they made their home until 1917 when they moved to O'Neill.

Mrs. Clevish has been at the state hospital since April 15, 1925.

The remains were brought to O'Neill Tuesday afternoon by Biglin Brothers and were taken to the Otto Clevish home in the southeastern part of the city.

Funeral services will be held from the Methodist church Friday afternoon at two o'clock conducted by Rev. J. A. Hutchins, of Meadow Grove. Burial will be in Prospect Hill cemetery, O'Neill.

METHODIST NEWS.

The Sunday services for this coming Sabbath Day are especially worthy of mentioning. In the morning worship hour, special musical numbers and the sermon will be "The Front in Trenches." In the evening an illustrated sermon "The Passion Play" will be given with the aid of 60 beautiful colored slides. Miss Opal Turner will sing "The Holy City" which will be illustrated by pictures of Jerusalem. You will not care to miss either service.
