THE OMAHA BOOSTERS WILL VISIT O'NEILL WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

More than one hundred businessmen from Omaha and Council Bluffs will make O'Neill a visit next Wednesday evening and Thursday morning. The "good will" special on which these gentlemen are traveling will arrive in O'Neill over the Burlington at 7:35 o'clock Wednesday evening and will remain here over night; a big dance is being arranged for the evening and every effort will be made to entertain the visitors royally.

The famous Dan Desdune colored band will accompany the train and will furnish the music. This band is a wonderful organization and will please everyone.

The merchants are putting on sales for the 17th and making special inducements for the benefit of those from a distance, so come in early and hear the band.

The boosters will visit the business houses from 8:00 until 9:00 Thursday morning. They will go east over the North Western at 9:00 a. m.

LOCAL NEWS.

John Carr has been quite ill at his home in Stafford during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McElhany spent Sunday at the V. V. Rosencrans home at Dorsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Helmer and family were visiting with relatives in Chambers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Livingston, of Atkinson, Nebraska, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowen Sunday.

Junior Harris suffered a severe injury to one of his eyes today when he was pushed into a tree while at play.

Fred McNally returned home the first of the week from a few days business trip to Omaha and points east.

Here are the Omaha business men who are touring this section the week of May 14th on the Omaha "Good Will Trade Excursion."

Another fine shower of rain visited this locality Tuesday night amounting to .16; again Wednesday afternoon a nice shower fell.

A son who tipped the scales at seven and one-half pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tibbitts Wednesday morning.

Gerald B. Nellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Nellis, of Atkinson, who has been teaching at Rosealie, Nebraska, has been elected coach of the Junior college at Norfolk for the coming year. Gerald's many Holt county friends rejoice with him and are proud of the success he is making of his chosen profession.

Frank Benedict, a former resident of this city, and a gentleman and girl who were accompanying him, received a few cuts from broken glass and were considerably shaken up when his car overturned on the highway north of O'Neill a couple of weeks ago. Mr. Benedict is employed by the Interstate Power Company and is working over in South Dakota.

S. J. Weekes went to Omaha Wednesday.

Mrs. John Kersenbrock returned home, Sunday, from Lincoln, Nebraska, where she recently submitted to an operation for nose and ear trouble.

K. Fenderson, formerly in charge of the construction work for the Interstate Power Company in this territory, is moving his family to O'Neill from Hartford, South Dakota. Mr. Fenderson has been appointed load dispatcher replacing Mr. Kruse, as Mr. Kruse is taking up the duties of inspector of transformers and instruments at the various plants in this section. A number of changes were made the first of the month. Three men have been assigned to duty on the hi-line; they will report all cracked insulators broken cross-arms and, in other words, anything that will cause an outage on the line. This is in line with the policies of the company in maintaining as near as possible 100 per cent service.

C. B. Nellis has tendered his resignation as supervisor from the west end of the county and has accepted a position with the Famous Molasses Feed Company of Omaha. Mr. Nellis has been a faithful and conscientious member of the board of supervisors for several years; his many friends in the west end have been urging him to again make the race, but owing to the opportunity offered by the Feed company he has decided to accept the salesmanship position.

Mrs. J. P. Gilligan and Mrs. Clifford Scott were hostesses at a pre-nuptial bridge party Thursday evening given in honor of Miss Ida Chapman, whose engagement to Victor Ulbrich, of Rochester, Minnesota, was announced during the evening; their marriage will be solemnized May 17. The members of the Martez club and a few invited friends were present. The rooms were tastefully decorated with a color scheme of peach and Napoleon blue; the color scheme was also carried out in the luncheon; individual molds in the shape of wedding bells were served. Mrs. E. M. Gallagher won high score at bridge; Mrs. L. A. Burgess won the all-cut prize. Miss Chapman was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

BRIDGE AND MOCK WEDDING FOR MISS IDA CHAPMAN

Mrs. E. L. O'Donnell entertained the Martez club at her home Saturday evening at Bridge. The usual five games were played at which Mrs. P. B. Harty won the high score.

Miss Ida Chapman, whose marriage to Victor Ulbrich, of Rochester, Minnesota, will take place May 17th, was the honor guest and around whom the merriment of the evening centered. A mock wedding was the next attraction with Mrs. John McManus as the bride and Miss Catherine King as the bridegroom. The costumes worn date backward many years; the bride's attire consisted of a dress of the style worn more than twenty-five years ago, and a "Merry Widow" hat with an exceptionally wide brim, she carried a bouquet of artificial weeds; the bridegroom wore light trousers with a little coat that seemed to be several sizes too small, and a "caddy" hat; the bridegroom's gift to the bride was a harness ring which was gracefully attached to the nose of the bride. Mrs. Max Golden was ringbearer, and wore a dress of mulline; Mrs. Ira Moss was the minister dressed in a beautiful red suit, hat to match typical of bygone days; the marriage vows to which the contracting parties submitted were entirely new and original causing much merriment. One of the amusing events of the wedding was the song "Because" sung by the members of the club, mouth harps and tin horns were used during the singing.

Following the wedding the ringbearer presented Miss Ida with numerous gifts from club members all of which were very unuseful, but very amusing.

IZAIAK WALTON LEAGUE IS BEING ORGANIZED

The O'Neill Chapter of the Izaak Walton League reorganized and will start off again with new life as a result of a meeting of the local enthusiasts of outdoor life held at the court house Tuesday evening. Dr. W. F. Finley was chosen temporary chairman and M. H. McCarthy temporary secretary. Another meeting will be held Tuesday evening at which time a permanent organization will be formed. State President Frank J. Brady, of Atkinson, was present and made a very interesting talk as did also Judge R. R. Dickson. John C. Jenkins, former chief game warden was present and is lending his efforts to make the O'Neill chapter go over big. It is the intention of the chapter to develop nursery ponds for the propagation of bass and trout.

Before the meeting a delegation drove to the Spencer power dam on the Niobrara, to study feasibility of locating suitable nursery ponds above and near the dam, finding two locations. A meeting of all chapters in Holt and Boyd counties is to be held perhaps Sunday, May 19, to consider the project.
