VOLUME XLVIII.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1928.

NO. 52.

Monahan Post Band, American Legion of Sioux City Here July 3-4-5

The above picture is of the Monahan Post Band of Sioux City, Iowa, as they paraded thru the Arch de Triumphe in Paris last fall. They took first prize in Paris and have also won first prize the seven years preceding from the all American Legion bands entered at the national convention. Also an orchestra of ten members will play for the dance when they come to O'Neill to play for the races July 3, 4, 5. The program at the Races will include many other attractions and will be the biggest celebration ever held in O'Neill. There will be fireworks, dancing, amusements of different kinds. Make your plans now. Ball Games, all kinds of concessions and amuse to celebrate in O'Neill.

Ewing Advocate: L. E. Skidmore is steadily improving from a rheumatic attack and we expect to see him up and around soon.

Miss Marjorie Dickson was hostess to the Martez club Monday evening. The honors at bridge was won by Mrs. Charles McKenna.

Miss Eileen Tenborg, of Emmet, went to Omaha Sunday, where she will spend the summer. She was accompanied by her brother, John Tenborg.

Ewing Advocate: Word has just been received here of the sudden illness and death of Mrs. Martin N. Van Zandt, of Des Moines, formerly a resident of Ewing.

Rev. Henry Loecker aged priest of St. Joseph parish, at Atkinson, died at the parish home Wednesday morning. Funeral services will be conducted Monday morning.

Mrs. L. W. Arnold came up from Lincoln, where she has been visiting since Mr. and Mrs. Richardson moved back to O'Neill, Monday evening, and will make her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rasley drove to Albion Sunday morning taking Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hall, who were met there by the parents of Mrs. Hall and taken to Hastings, for a few days' visit.

The County Eighth Grade graduation exercises for the county eighth grade graduates will be held at the K. of C. Hall in O'Neill on Tuesday, May 29th at 1:30 p. m. All county graduates are requested to be present to receive their diplomas. A good program has been arranged. Parents and friends are cordially invited to attend these exercises.

LOCAL NEWS.

Chick Gaines expects to move his family to O'Neill next week from Broken Bow. Uhl Brothers expects to truck the household goods.

Peter W. Duffy sent four of his young gallopers to Omaha Tuesday with the Uhl Brothers, where the colts will enter the Ak-Sar-Ben races.

State Engineer Roy L. Cochran and Division Engineer A. C. Tilly spent several days last week on an inspection trip in Boyd and Holt counties and other parts of north and northeast Nebraska.

About fifty of the neighbors surprised Mr. and Mrs. John Horn, of Emmet, at her home last Tuesday evening. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Horn. The evening was spent at cards and games; at midnight a delicious luncheon was served consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee. Everyone had a wonderful time and wished Mrs. Horn many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Dave Stannard is building a bungalow on her lots on east Douglas street.

John Carr was taken to Rochester, Minnesota, last Monday by Dr. W. E. Finley, where he will undergo an operation in the near future; a message from Rochester states that he is resting comfortably.

Miss Geneva Grady, teacher of District No. 37, and Emma Anspaugh, teacher of the Eden Valley school held a joint picnic for the closing of their schools last Friday, which was greatly enjoyed by both pupils and parents.

In a letter to his father, Arthur Ryan, of this city, Leo Ryan graphically tells of the fatal accident that befell John C. W. Smith, an expert electrician in the Interstate construction gang at Dubuque, Iowa, with whom Leo is employed. Smith evidently made a mismove and touched a high voltage lead and was killed almost instantly. Smith was known by several O'Neill people; he represented a culvert and machine company in this territory in 1921 and 1922.

Miss Mary Haffner entertained ten of her girl friends at a dinner Saturday evening at her home. Covers were laid for Misses Elizabeth Henry, Nona Bressler, Corinne Smith, May and Honore Langmack, Loree Sauers, Florence Surber, Pearl Burge, Helen Hancock, Patrice Robertson and Mary Haffner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Everhart, of Orchard, were in town Friday, bringing Mrs. Everhart's sister, Mrs. N. S. Hendrick, of Rockford, Illinois, to O'Neill for a visit with old friends. Mrs. Hendrick formerly lived in this city, leaving here for Illinois about five years ago.

The fire department was called to the home of Paul Schwisow in the southwestern part of the city, at 6:15 o'clock Monday morning. Fire was caused from an oil stove which exploded. The kitchen and part of the dining room were damaged by the blaze. Eunice, the three year old daughter, who was sleeping in an upstairs room was overcome by the gas and required the assistance of a physician to revive her; she is apparently recovering from the effects of the gas.

Henry Schacht, son Andy and Alfred Bradley, arrived home on Monday of last week from a five weeks' trip to McAllen, Texas, where Mr. Schacht has a tract of land comprising sixteen acres which is planted to cotton. Mr. Schacht expects to plant the entire acreage to grapefruit and oranges next year and will personally supervise the work. The party were at Point Isabel, the farthest points south in the United States, and were also at Monteray, Mexico, during their big celebration. They say that the roads are fine in Texas; the Meridian highway is all paved but about sixty miles of the 846 through Texas.

Editor and Mrs. W. C. Templeton and children returned home Sunday evening from Brewster, Kansas, where on Wednesday, May 16th, they attended the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mrs. Templeton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Minor. Mr. and Mrs. Minor were the parents of twelve children, all of whom are enjoying good health; eleven of the children accompanied by their families were present at the celebration; one daughter and husband accompanied by their children drove from Portland, Oregon; some came from Montana, Nebraska and points in eastern and western Kansas. Mrs. Julia Elliott, Kansas City and Mrs. Henry Crozier, Genoa, Nebraska, sisters of Mrs. Minor were also present. Sixty-five children and grand children were served at a cafeteria dinner at noon; open house followed during the afternoon and evening. Friends came from many of the surrounding towns to pay their respects to the family. The government at the request of a neighbor, Chauncey Dewey, an ex-army officer, sent one of their large hospital tents to the Minor home to be used for the reception and entertainment of the visitors; a large flag also floated from near the tent. The Minor home was the scene of much merriment for several days before as well as after the golden wedding date.
