The address by Mr. Taylor was very interesting and helpful and the exercises were well attended by a crowd of interested friends and relatives. After the exercises everyone was invited by the Commercial Club of O'Neill to attend a free picture show at the Royal Theatre. These exercises are something that the children will not forget and we are planning on a bigger and better one for next year.

BRICK BATS.

"The clothing business is the line," once said a man named Frat, "that I will surely claim for mine, just paste that in your hat. All men must buy some kind of clothes, from suits to underwear, straw hats, white shirts and silken hose, the outlook seems real fair." So Frat planked down his kale and bought a clothing store, he bought it all, lock, stock and rail and opened up the door. The start he made was very good and so he felt quite sure that if he kept on sawing wood, his business would endure. But when he had the place a week, somebody had a sale, also a peddler far from meek took in a pile of kale. His customers bought things on time and then forgot to pay, to him such backsets were a crime, and so he quit to stay. There is no business in the land that's perfect, safe and sure. The bad points grow to beat the band and one cannot endure unless he plans, with them to cope and take the bad with good. For such there is the star of hope that changes "can't" to "could."—Brick Smith.

 To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Holt County, Nebraska:

Gentlemen: On the 25th day of April, 1927, The O'Neill Woman's Club of O'Neill, Nebraska, most respectfully gave this Honorable Board to understand and be informed that Lots One (1) to Eight (8), inclusive, in Block Thirteen (13) in the Original Town of O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, the same being the North North Half (N 1/2) of Block Thirteen (13), is owned by the County of Holt, and is vacant property and has been vacant property ever since the organization of the town of O'Neill; that The O'Neill Woman's Club of O'Neill, Nebraska, at that time respectfully requested a lease of said property for a period of ninety-nine (99) years, or a shorter period if this Honorable Board did not see fit to extend a lease for the period; that The O'Neill Woman's Club desired said property to be used as a memorial park to the Soldiers of the World War, and expected, if the lease is granted to the O'Neill Woman's Club, to beautify said property by planting trees, flowers and making other improvements thereon.

DR. T. J. DWYER DIES

IN LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

A message to O'Neill relatives Wednesday brought the sad news of the death of Dr. Timothy J. Dwyer, of Omaha, in Los Angeles, California, where he has been enjoying a rest for some time.

The announcement of the death of Dr. Dwyer was a surprise to O'Neill people; few if any knew that he had been in poor health, and his death was a shock to his O'Neill friends. Acute dilation of the heart was the immediate cause of his death.

Dr. Dwyer accompanied a patient to Arizona and decided to remain there for a little rest, he became ill but was seemingly on the road to recovery. For the past six weeks he has been in Los Angeles at the home of a sister, Mrs. Mary McCarthy. Friday evening of last week he suffered a severe heart attack and passed away at 12:30 Tuesday afternoon. The remains will arrive in Omaha at nine o'clock Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Coyne, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Murphy, O'Neill, and Mrs. Louis Storms, Gregory, South Dakota, drove to Omaha today to attend the funeral services. The ladies are sisters of the deceased.

The following account of the death of Dr. Dwyer appeared in The Omaha World-Herald Wednesday:

Dr. T. J. Dwyer, 55 prominent Omaha physician, died in Los Angeles, California, shortly after noon Tuesday from the effects of a heart attack which he suffered a week ago. He had been in Los Angeles about a month, going there from Tucson, Arizona, where he went for a rest several months ago.

Dr. J. R. Dwyer, of Omaha, his brother, won a dramatic race with death to reach his brother's bedside. He arrived in Los Angeles only a few hours before his brother expired. Mrs. T. J. Dwyer, who accompanied him on his western trip, and Mrs. Mary McCarthy of Los Angeles were the only other relatives at his bedside. His three children are in Omaha.

Dr. Dwyer was apparently in good health when he departed for the west two months ago, it was said when news of his death reached Omaha. His friends and relatives here were surprised by his sudden demise.
