To the Board of supervisors of Holt County, Nebraska:

The Page State Bank states that it is the owner of NE¹/₄ 39-9; that said land is situated in School District No. 23 of said County. Said land was transferred in 1927 for school purposes only to School District No. 128. In 1927 District 128 levied taxes of 14.6 mills. This included 8 mill general, 5 mill bond and 1.6 free high. That in making up the assessment against this land there was levied the entire school tax instead of the general tax of 8 mill and free high of 1.6. That said land was not subject to taxation for bond tax which amounted to 5 mills. That petitioner paid the entire school tax under protest and now asks that it be refunded the sum of $24.65, the amount of bond tax and that sum be charged against the bond account of school District No. 128.

Attached hereto is the tax receipt of petitioner.

PAGE STATE BANK,

By W. J. Hammond, Its Attorney.

After investigation by the tax committee, motion was made, seconded and carried that the prayer of the petition be granted and clerk be instructed to draw a refund warrant in accordance therewith.

Mr. Bently was brought before the board for the purpose of making some arrangements for his care.

At 12 o'clock noon on motion, board adjourned until 1 o'clock p. m.

WALTER SAVIDGE AMUSEMENT CO.

The Walter Savidge Amusement company now playing its twenty-second season, comes to O'Neill for a week's engagement beginning Monday, June 4th. Plays in the large, new canvas theatre and many riding devices and features of entertainment have been provided for the midway. No expense has been spared in providing the best and newest entertainment for the public. The new tent is one of the largest in the country and was built especially for this company. Its stage is the largest of any theatre traveling under canvas. Chicago and New York players have been secured for the plays. "A Wise Old Owl," by Chas. Dazy, "What Movies Will Do," by Robert Sherman, "The Lure of the City," by Collins, "Patsy," by Chas. Morton, "The Gorrilla," by Jewell Tull, and "Her Companionate Marriage," by Edmund Paul, will be presented. In case of cool evenings the theatre will be heated.

The concert band, directed by George B. Blocker, will give free concerts daily. Charles Cushman directs the orchestra. Madam Viola's tropical pets are the free act this season and will appear each evening at 6:45 and Saturday afternoon at 2. A merry-go-round for kiddies is new this year in riding devices. The larger merry-go-round, ferris wheel, seaplanes and merry-mix-up are among the riding devices. Viola's wonderland of curiosities, Freed & Freed variety circus, monkey speedway and Baby May among other features. Baby May is America's smallest, fattest girl. She weighs 480 pounds, is handsome and speaks seven languages.

BRICK BATS.

The Chinks are scrapping with the Japs, in China far away; they're handing out big healthy slaps, with hope to maim and slay. All day and night the big guns roar, the bullets whine and wail; the gods of war still call for more to follow war's grim trail. It's war and so the big guns boom a heavy cannonade, foretelling famine, death and doom, the regular prices paid by those who want the big parade, the glitter and the flash, the uniforms and golden braid, the lust for lands and cash. However, we don't give much heed to this far distant fuss; for front page they may vainly plead, we do not care a cuss. We'll let them fight till crack of doom, as far as we may care; because our papers have no room for distant rocket's glare. Those heathen picked the poorest time to get themselves in print; their chances are not worth a dime that never saw the mint. For we have something better here to which our interest sticks; this is a presidential year—it's time for politics.—Brick Smith.
