

LOCAL NEWS.

D. H. Clauson is reshingling his house with fire proof shingles.

Miss Genevieve Biglin, of Sioux City, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rasley drove to Creighton and Norfolk Monday.

Miss Dorothy Collins, of Plainview, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Quig.

Mrs. J. C. Harnish went to Omaha Wednesday to visit her son, Frank and family.

Miss Mariam Golden has accepted a position in the real estate office of F. J. Dishner.

Harry Sisco has purchased a barber shop at Burchard, and moved his family there.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goree and children, of Long Pine, were O'Neill visitors last week.

A daughter weighing 9½ pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson Tuesday.

Miss Lucille Hough went to Lincoln Monday where she will attend school this summer.

Arthur King and George Stannard are home from their college work for the summer vacation.

Mrs. Ralph McElvain spent the week-end in Long Pine. Her husband motored up after her Sunday.

Joe Beha, who has been attending Creighton University, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Beha.

Mrs. Bob Huff and children, of Norfolk, are spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick and son, Clinton, of Plainview, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Hess Baker drove up from Texas, Friday, for an extended visit with relatives in O'Neill and Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Porter spent Memorial Day with relatives and friends in Brainard and David City, Nebraska.

Doris, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Powell injured her foot quite badly last week when she jumped while at play.

D. G. Gaffey, representing the State Savings & Loan Company of Beatrice, was looking after business in O'Neill Saturday.

Mrs. Florence McCaffrey Frinking, of Omaha, spent several days last week visiting with O'Neill relatives and old time friends.

Mrs. Irene Tierney Thompson returned to her home in Omaha last Sunday following a visit with O'Neill relatives and friends.

Miss Geraldine Cronin came up from Omaha this morning and will spend the summer vacation with her sister, Mrs. P. B. Hart.

Roy Griffin joined a party of friends from the eastern part of the state on a fishing trip to Lake Andes, South Dakota, today.

Miss Fern Hubbard came home Lincoln, Saturday evening. Master Bobby Cummings accompanied her home for an extended visit.

A car driven by Harry Haffner was somewhat damaged when forced from the road near St. Edward, Nebraska, the latter part of last week.

John Honeycutt, O'Neill's baseball pitcher, twirled a game today for the Norfolk State league team and won the game 4 to 1 against York.

The burning out of a chimney at the Robert Magirl residence west of the city limits caused the firemen to make a hurried call Tuesday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor entertained a few friends last Thursday evening for Mrs. Irene Thompson and Mrs. Florence Frinking, of Omaha.

J. B. Mellor drove a new Ford Ford sedan home from Omaha the first of the week which he delivered to Winfield Hayne east of O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Page, of Sioux City, Iowa, came up Monday evening for a visit at the home of their son, Harry and family and old time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mellor Tuesday moved to their residence recently purchased from B. H. Dimmitt. The house has been remodeled and redecorated.

The ladies Guild of the Presbyterian church will hold a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Geo. A. Miles, Thursday, June 14th. Everybody invited.

Elmer Surger, E. D. Henry, Judge R. R. Dickson and L. G. Gillespie were in Omaha the first of the week attending Masonic Grand lodge which closed today.

George McNally accompanied his daughter, Nadine and son Billy, to Bloomfield, Nebraska, the first of the week where they will visit for a time with relatives.

R. H. Parker has a large tooth weighing 7½ lbs. which was found five miles south of Redbird. The bone is supposed to have belonged to some prehistoric animal.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pierce, who have been visiting for a few days at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. John Kersenbrock, returned to their home in Lincoln this morning.

While Mrs. Cadwell was operating an electric washer Tuesday, in some manner her left hand was caught in the wringer and pretty badly bruised. She had the presence of mind to reverse the wringer which saved her hand from being badly crushed.

Mrs. E. J. Velder, Mrs. E. I. Bridges, Mrs. John Rohde and Mrs. Guy Cole of Emmet, drove to Yankton last Saturday and spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Jerome Maring.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coakley, of near Lynch, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cooper and J. S. Turner, of Fairfax, Missouri, and B. F. Purvis, of Fullerton, were visiting and shopping in O'Neill last Friday.

James Crawley, Jr., received a cut on the right wrist that came near severing the radial artery, and received a few cuts on his hands and head when his car overturned with him east of O'Neill Sunday evening.

Norfolk News: A new car driven by Robert Foreman with three persons accompanying him, went into the ditch near Oakview park. Foreman was somewhat injured by flying glass but the others escaped injury. The car was a total wreck.

Wm. Buskirk was brought before the county judge the first of the week and fined $25 each on three counts—driving an auto without horn, driving with improper lights and driving without brakes. In default of the money he was sent to jail for thirty days.

George McCarthy, who has been employed at the Northwestern railway station in O'Neill for the past year, has been transferred to Superior, where he will take up his duties as yard clerk. His wife and daughter, Beverly Jane, will follow soon.

The Omaha Cold Storage Company have reopened their cream station in the Tom Brennan building; W. L. Tottenhoff, who was the former manager, will again be in charge of the station. Mr. Tottenhoff expects to move to O'Neill in the near future.

The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beckwith, who reside west of town, was quite badly burned May 30th. The little fellow pulled the table cloth and overturned a teapot of hot tea, which burned one side of his face, chest, upper and lower limb. He is recovering nicely.

The Republican National convention will convene in Kansas City next Tuesday. One of the largest crowds that has ever attended a like convention is expected to be present from all points of the United States. Several O'Neill people are contemplating a trip to Kansas City.

Mrs. Lyle Curtis and daughter, Marilyn Jean, came up from Sioux City, to attend the Alumni banquet of St. Mary's Academy. They visited here until last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Curtis took them as far as Randolph, where they were met by Lisle, who accompanied home.

Mrs. T. O. Miller arrived in O'Neill from Casper, Wyoming, last Saturday to join her husband and will make this her home. Mrs. Miller has been teaching school near Casper. Mrs. Miller will be remembered as Margaret Dorsey. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are stopping at the J. B. Mellor home for the present.

Miss Geneva Fox entertained a few friends at a birthday party, June 2nd in honor of her twelfth birthday anniversary. Those present were: Mavis Thompson, Jean Selah, Ruth Leach, Marguerite Dempsey, Margaret Honeywell, Grace Loy, Eileen Davidson, Catherine Hagnsick, Rebecca Haskins, Esther Sexsmith, Clea VanEvery, Patrice Robertson.

S. J. Weekes received a letter from Jack Kinkaid, Los Angeles, California, a few days ago telling of the death of his father, John Kinkaid, brother and last of the immediate relatives of the late M. P. Kinkaid; eleven nieces and nephews survive. John Kinkaid, spent considerable time in O'Neill following the death of his brother, M. P., and made a number of friends who will be grieved to learn of his demise.

Wm. Massey, of Atkinson, a Spanish war veteran, was before the United States Board of Examining Surgeons, Wednesday, applying for a pension. The board was recently appointed; it consists of Dr. L. A. Carter, O'Neill, president; Dr. W. F. Finley, O'Neill, secretary, and Dr. Neil P. McKee, Atkinson, treasurer. The board will meet in regular session at ten o'clock on the first Wednesday of each month at the office of Dr. Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ennis received a letter a few days ago from their son, E. H. Ennis and family, who sailed from San Francisco, California, in April for Perth, Australia, where Mr. Ennis will be production manager for the General Motors Company. In telling of their trip they wrote that their stop in Sydney, Australia, was a pleasant one; that Sydney is a city of over a million population; the winter season is just coming on and the trees are now in full bloom; the winter season there compares with our summer; they are 10,000 miles east of us.

The buildings at Sunset Lodge, the tourist camp on the highway in the eastern part of the city, are being finished and furnished ready for occupancy. The park is going to be a wonderful advantage to tourists and will cause many people to spend the night in O'Neill who would otherwise pass on. Several have suggested that the city abandon the free park in the western part of the city and let the pay park care for the travelers. We understand that the prices are very nominal. Mr. Osborn has arranged for police protection and will conduct the place in a quiet orderly manner.

County Attorney J. D. Cronin delivered the Memorial Day address at the public services held under the auspices of the American Legion at Pilger on Wednesday of last week.

Barney O'Mara the famous baritone will appear in this city Monday and Tuesday of next week. It has been quite some time since this talented artist last appeared in O'Neill. Mr. O'Mara is on a tour to California where he will spend the summer months getting ready for next season. Mr. O'Mara is the late star of Irish Eyes Company and is considered successor to Chauncey Olcott. His pleasing personality and sweet singing of Irish songs has made him a host of friends on two continents.

RITES FOR DR. DWYER IN CATHEDRAL MONDAY
(World-Herald.)
Funeral services for Dr. T. J. Dwyer, who died Tuesday in Los Angeles, will be held from the residence, 528 South Thirty-seventh street, at 9:30 a. m., Monday, to St. Cecilia's cathedral at 10.

There will be a solemn requiem mass with Rev. P. A. Flanagan as celebrant; Rev. James W. Stenson, deacon, and Rev. E. J. Flanagan, subdeacon. The sermon will be by Rev. James Aherne. Rev. E. Wegner will be master of ceremonies.

Bishop P. A. McGovern of Cheyenne, Wyoming, and many monsignori and priests will be in the sanctuary.

A male choir composed of John Jamieson, Harry V. Burkley, Thomas Swift, George Peters, Henry Schneider, Frank McCabe and John Halpine will sing the requiem. At the offertory, "Christus Factus Est" will be sung by a male quartet, and after the mass the quartet will sing "De Profundis." Mrs. M. J. Flanagan will be organist.

The staff of doctors and nurses of St. Catherine's hospital, where Dr. Dwyer was chief of staff, will attend the funeral in a body.

Ushers will be Dr. Ray Byrne, Dr. Fred Schwertly, Henry Lee, Tim Dinan, James Hanley and Alex F. Brungardt.

Among those from O'Neill who attended the funeral services for Dr. T. J. Dwyer in Omaha last Monday were P. J. McManus, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harrington; Judge Robert R. Dickson and daughter, Miss Marjorie; J. F. O'Donnell; J. B. Mellor; C. E. Stout; Dr. J. P. Gilligan.

PROHIBITION AGENTS ARREST SIX PERSONS
(Norfolk News)

Six persons, five men and one woman, all residents of Holt county, were brought before United States

Commissioner Jack Koenigstein at Norfolk Saturday morning by federal prohibition agents. All pleaded guilty and were admitted to bonds.

Ed Hubby and wife, Julia, are charged with possession of 150 gallons of whisky mash four gallons of Each one gave a $1,500 bond and was released from custody.

Bud Colwell is charged with possession of eight gallons of moonshine and a sale of intoxicating liquor. He was admitted to a $1,000 bond, which he furnished.

Possession of 126 quarts of home brew beer, ten gallons of home brew mash and the sale of intoxicating liquor is charged against Henry Witte. After pleading guilty he was admitted to a $1,000 bond, which he gave.

Ed Gunn is charged with the sale of one-half pint of whiskey. At noon Saturday he had not been able to furnish the $1,000 bond to which he was admitted, but expected to do so by Saturday evening.

Sale of liquor and the possession of forty-three pints of beer is charged against Charles Sterner, who when he said he was guilty remarked, "I'll never do it again." He was admitted to a $1,000 bond which was furnished.

Warrants for four persons living in Holt county are held by Commissioner Koenigstein.

O'NEILL AND NELIGH WILL BATTLE HERE SUNDAY

One of the best baseball games of the season will be played here next Sunday when Neligh will come to O'Neill for a return game. O'Neill won from Neligh a couple of weeks ago in a spectacular game and will make an extra effort to repeat the dose next Sunday.

If you enjoy real baseball come out and see the game.

GROUNDS BEING GROOMED FOR RUNNING RACES

Peter W. Duffy informs The Frontier that the race track and grounds are already being groomed for the coming running race meet that will be held in this city on July 3rd, 4th and 5th. Bleachers have been arranged for and everything will be done to accommodate the large crowd that will visit the races each day.

Baseball games between prominent teams from other cities will be a feature each day. The schedule of games will be published next week.

Phil Ziemer, manager of concessions, says that enough concessions have been signed for, to fill the street from the court house to the Burlington tracks so if you want to have a good time plan to spend a few evening in O'Neill during the races.

Overstock

on

Goodyear Tires

Must be reduced regardless of cost

Tubes Free!!  Tubes Free!!

With every Tire purchased from us within the next ten days

This Special Offer on Goodyear High Quality Tires

Positively Closes on June 20th

Everybody knows Goodyear Tires

Everybody knows

Mellor Motor Company

Ford Dealer

O'Neill : : : Neb.

Phone 16

