O'NEILL ALL SET FOR RUNNING RACES AND THREE-DAY CELEBRATION

O'Neill is in readiness for the big three-day celebration that will start in O'Neill next Tuesday and continue through Wednesday and Thursday. The stores and business places are already arranging for the decoration of their windows and the display of the national colors.

Peter W. Duffy, who is looking after the entries says that around two hundred gallopers will be in O'Neill for the races and that many of them are among the best in the country. There will be at least five running races each day. A saddle horse race each day will be an added attraction each saddle horse must carry a thirty-pound stock saddle.

The Monahan Post Band of Sioux City will be one of the big events of the celebration. They will be here for the three days, playing throughout the day. The Monahan Post Orchestra will furnish the music for the Legion dance which will be held on the large bowery.

The base ball games each day are going to be worth while. The game scheduled for Tuesday between Bartlett and Atkinson will be a good one as both teams are playing excellent ball this year. Bartlett has won 7 of 8 games played; they recently defeated the strong Neligh team, and also defeated the top notch Spalding team.

The game between Randolph and O'Neill which will be played Wednesday, July 4th, will give the fans a chance to see some fast base ball. The Randolph team has twice defeated Bloomfield this year and also won from the Sioux City Stock Yards team. O'Neill is grooming a team that will give the Randolph bunch a run for the money.

Thursday's game will also be a good one when Creighton will come with a determination to clean-up on O'Neill. Creighton has an excellent line-up and has played exceptional base ball this year.

The Midway down town will be an attraction during the evenings. The streets will be lined with shows, games, stands and various attractions from the Burlington depot to the court house on Fourth street and will have everything to entertain all ages.

The McClellan Shows will occupy a section of the street near the depot. They are playing in Omaha this week; they carry a large carnival outfit and 250 people.

Goldie Meek and her 49 show will be here with several shows. Come to O'Neill on the 3rd, 4th and 5th where a good time awaits you.

The blue grass harvest was not a success from a quantity standpoint. Only about 1200 acres were combed this year so far. Three machines are working on the Harry Harte farm north of Inman but Mr. Schwisow who has charge of the combing tells us that they will have to discontinue operations on account of the under growth.

M. A. Whaley, residing northeast of O'Neill, experienced a rather unusual accident Tuesday morning while driving on highway No. 20. As he reached the crossroads at Copenhagen, the steering wheel of his Chevrolet coupe became locked causing the car to make a wide circle that landed it in the ditch, badly damaging the body of the car. Investigation disclosed the fact that the wheel had, no doubt, picked up a breast chain used in a chain harness and had thrown it in such a way as to cause it to wrap around the steering wheel locking it tightly. Mr. Whaley was enroute to Randolph to visit Mrs. Whaley who is assisting in the care of a brother, Elmer Cople, who is critically ill with a cancer. Mr. Whaley says the accident detained him only one hour. He drove the car to Randolph and returned to O'Neill with it Wednesday. He received several broken ribs and a scalp wound.

Gov. Al Smith and Senator Joseph T. Robinson Nominated at Houston

Gov. Al Smith, of New York, and Senator Joe Robinson, of Arkansas, are the choice of the Democrat national convention for president and vice-president.

Al Smith was nominated about midnight Thursday night following a couple of days of wrangling over a platform, which the leaders of the democrat party believe will pacify all factions and fool the republicans into voting for Al Smith and Joe Robinson this fall. The platform condemns everything that the republicans have ever done and lauds to the sky the slightest doings of the democrats. In short, it is in every way similar to the democrat platforms of years past. Robinson was nominated for vice-president about noon Friday.

The O'Neill-Creighton ball game scheduled for last Sunday, was postponed on account of rain.
