DAVIDSON-SIXSMITH.

John Davidson and Miss Edith Sixsmith quietly drove over to Yankton, South Dakota, on October 9, 1927, and were married. The event was kept a secret until they left for the Black Hills on a belated wedding trip, only two or three intimate friends knew of the wedding until the news was released last Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson are among O'Neill's most popular young people. The bride is the present deputy county superintendent; she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Sixsmith, who reside north of the city.

Everyone in O'Neill knows "Johnny;" he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson of this city; he has been connected with the plumbing shop with his father for a number of years and is a hustling young business man.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson are anxiously awaiting their return when they will be given a big charivari.

The Frontier extends congratulations and wish Mr. and Mrs. Davidson prosperity.

DRY CREEK TEAM

DEFEAT THE SHAMROCKS

The Dry Creek ball team won from the Shamrock team with a score of 13 to 8. This fast game of ball was played on the Dry Creek diamond seven and a half miles southwest of O'Neill, Sunday, July 29. The Shamrock team has only been beaten twice so far this season, once by Swan Lake and again by the Dry Creek boys.

The Shamrock team played good ball Sunday but not good enough for the Dry Creek boys.

Battery for Dry Creek: Shoemaker and Shoemaker; Shamrock were Cavanaugh and Woods.

Dry Creek also won the game from the Crumley team, Sunday, July 22, with a score of 19 to 6.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Lewis E. Furnish and children, Agatha and Bobby Lou, of Aberdeen, South Dakota, arrived here Saturday night for a two weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Furnish.

S. L. Berry received a letter the first of the week announcing the death of Frank C. Babcock, in the sanitarium in Philadelphia, on July 7th. It will be remembered that Mrs. Babcock spent considerable time in O'Neill during the war in the operation of her 640 acre farm two miles north of O'Neill. Mrs. Babcock was quite prominently identified with national Red Cross work during the World War and was sent to France or England as a delegate to a national Red Cross convention following the war.

LOCAL NEWS.

The first issue of the Plainview Mail came to our desk last week. It is a very attractive, newsy sheet and has every indication of being a success from a financial standpoint as it is filled with advertising of the local merchants. The publishers are A. E. Smally & Son. A. E. Smalley is the editor.

Twenty-four first class Boy Scouts of Omaha, arrived in O'Neill Saturday evening in a Douglas six-wheel truck, on their 650-mile tour of 29 counties in northern Nebraska. The purpose of the trip is to bring the advantages of scouting before youths of the principal towns on the route and they will stop at practically all of the county seats. The trip will last two weeks. They left Omaha July 23rd.

Attorney W. J. Hammond, accompanied by his son, Billie, and his mother, Mrs. A. J. Hammond, drove to Denver last week, leaving O'Neill Tuesday morning. Mrs. Hammond will visit with the D. J. Carlson family and the Grady sisters, Master Bobbie will continue with his father to Pueblo, Colorado, where he will visit his aunt, Miss Grace Carlson, while W. J. will go to Texas for a two weeks' business trip.

Rev. and Mrs. Guy W. Ballard and son, Max, of Iowa Falls, Iowa, stopped in O'Neill and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Gillespie Wednesday night. They are enroute home from an auto trip to Portland, Oregon, where they visited with Mrs. Ballard's brother. They also made an extensive tour of the western part of the United States. John Harbottle accompanied them home and will spend a couple of weeks with his old pal, Max Ballard.

The Bible school conducted at the Presbyterian church closed last Friday with a picnic for the children on the church lawn. A program was given by the children attending at the church service hour Sunday morning which consisted of two songs by the Junior department under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Henry, a review of the bible study lessons, by Mrs. R. M. Sauer, a pantomime and two short bible plays under the direction of Miss Fern Hubbard.

The Holt County Old Settlers picnic will be held in the Morrow grove sixteen miles north of O'Neill on August 8th and 9th. A big program of speaking and outdoor sports including three good ball games will be enjoyed during the celebration. Phil Ziemer has charge of the concessions and he tells The Frontier that he has more than a dozen concessions lined up for the two days, that will form a midway where everyone can enjoy themselves when the programs are not taking place.

Harry T. Osborn and George McNally spent Tuesday and Wednesday of this week in the western part of the state in the interest of the proposed drilling for oil in the territory north-west of O'Neill. A rig is being arranged for and will be brought to O'Neill in the near future either from the western part of the state or from Oklahoma and work will begin soon thereafter. A number of local people are considerably interested in the drilling prospects and are assisting in the preliminary work.

Hastings Tribune: Mr. and Mrs. Emil Suhr, who have been visiting at the J. R. McCreary home, departed today for Lincoln, where they are guests of the former's mother while the former is taking post-graduate work at the state university. For the past three years Mr. Suhr has been superintendent of schools at O'Neill, but the family will move soon to Beatrice, where he will be principal of the Junior High School. They were accompanied on their visit by their small sons, Billie and Bobbie. Mrs. Suhr and Mrs. McCreary are sisters.

Mrs. J. J. Harrington and Mrs. Clifford B. Scott entertained the Martez club and a few invited guests at the home of Mrs. Harrington Tuesday evening. The early part of the evening was devoted to bridge, at which Mrs. Hugh Birmingham was given first honors. Mrs. J. A. Fenking the all-cut, and Miss Mariam Gilligan the guest prize. At the luncheon which followed each guest was given a small envelope, which, to the great surprise of everyone contained the announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Mariam Gilligan to Dr. Ted E. Ridell, which will take place August 18th.

E. E. Hardy, the gentleman who has been entertaining radio listeners over the country with his musical saw, is in O'Neill today, tuning pianos. Mr. Hardy has traveled all over the country entertaining people with various musical instruments of his own making. His first experience was with a dulcimer which he made from an old wagon box when he was a young man. The musical saw is his latest musical invention. Mr. Hardy expects to visit a few days at the Lawrence Murray home while here; he says that he worked for Mr. Murray's father many years ago when the family lived at Leigh, Nebraska. Mr. Hardy is a brother of Captain Hardy the crack shot who has given many exhibits over this part of the country.
