Kennedy-Dixon Vows Exchanged at Page

Miss Joellen Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kennedy, Page, became the bride of Edward Eugene Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dixon, Grand Junction, Colo., Sunday at 7 p.m.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of imported lace over satin. The princess style bodice featured a scooped neckline and long sleeves tapered to bridal points at the wrists. A tiara of nylon, pearl and lace medallions matching the dress held the double shoulder length veil.

The bride carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses with lilies-of-the-valley. Her jewelry was a pearl necklace and earrings.

Becky Kennedy served her sister as maid of honor. Mrs. Shirley Hueflite, Lincoln, also attended the bride. Both wore pink sheath dresses of nylon brocade and chiffon with matching shoes and headbands. They carried bouquets of pink daisies.

Ed Saldecki, Denver, Col., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Keith Kennedy, brother of the bride was also an attendant.

Mrs. Leland Knutson at the organ accompanied Mrs. Patricia French who sang "I Love You Truly," "Whither Thou Goest," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The mother of the bride wore a light blue dress and the mother of the bridegroom wore blue lace. Both wore red rose corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Waitresses were Misses Betty Spangler, Linda Cronk and Lois Saltz. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Genevieve Mumford. Beatrice, Mrs. Keith Kennedy and Mrs. Anne Hobbak, Burwell, poured. Mrs. Ileen Hansen was at the gift table and Mrs. Charles Bagby was in charge of the guest book.

For her going away ensemble, the bride chose a grey sheath dress with matching walking suit top and light green accessories. After a short wedding trip the couple will live in Alamosa, Colo.

Out of town guests were from Grand Junction and Denver, and York, Ainsworth, Tekamah, Omaha, Beatrice, Orchard and Plainville.

EWING—Miss Mary Ann Kallhoff daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Kallhoff of Ewing, became the bride of Vernon D. Blecher, Audubon, Iowa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blecher of Neligh, on June 6, at St. Peter's church in Ewing.

The Rev. Peter Burke officiated at the 10 a.m. double ring ceremony and nuptial mass.

Mrs. Kermit Jefferies was organist. Mrs. Grover Shaw, soloist, sang "On This Day O Beautiful Mother"

"O Lord I Am Not Worthy" and "Panis Angelicus." The altar was decorated with white gladioli and daisies with candelabra.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor length gown of Rosepoint lace and nylon tulle. The fitted bodice of Rosepoint was designed with a sabrina neckline, edged with hand clipped flowers centered with tiny pearls and sequins. The long sleeves came to a bridal point.

The scalloped lace extended into the full gathered skirt, featuring a wide lace insertion from which a full gathered flounce extended to the floor. The double veil of French illusion was caught by a headpiece trimmed in pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade of white daisies.

Irne Kaczor, Ewing, was maid of honor. She wore a street length gown of Nile green nylon chiffon, with matching cap with a sequin and pearl trimmed veil. Her bouquet was also of white daisies with nylon tulle.

Richard Kallhoff, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Louis Jones and James McKillip, both of Clearwater. Sheila Kallhoff niece of the bride, was flower girl. Robert Lewis, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother chose for her daughters wedding a light blue dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of navy blue with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at St. Dominic's Hall by the parents of the bride. A hundred and thirty guests were present. The three tier square wedding cake featured Nile green, white flower trimmed, which led to the miniature bride and groom at the top. The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Walter Westhouse, Elgin.

Mrs. Don Jensen cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Lonnie Langdon, O'Neill, poured. Mrs. Richard Kallhoff, Ewing, Miss Jean Fisher and Miss Ardel Owens, both of Tilden, arranged the gifts.

Miss Judy Cloyd was in charge of the guest book. Ladies assisting with the reception were Mesdames Ralph Mann, John Bollwitt, James Rotherham, Arthur Kropp, Frank Hawk and James Mnarik. Waitresses were Misses Clara Mnarik, Bethyl and Vera Del Daniels, and Mrs. James McKillip.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at Council Bluffs.

The bride is a graduate of the Ewing high school. She has been employed at O'Neill in the ASC office. The bridegroom has served a three year enlistment in the U. S. Army and since his discharge has been employed as a mechanic in Audubon, Iowa.
