Leona Schmit Wed In Atkinson Rite

Miss Leona M. Schmit of Omaha and Leonard J. Troshynski of Guthrie Center, Ia., both formerly of Atkinson, were married Saturday morning, June 6, at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Atkinson. The men's choir sang, accompanied by Miss Leona Kilmer. The bride is the daughter of Nick G. Schmit, Mr. and Mrs. August Troshynski are the parents of the bridegroom. All are from Atkinson. For her wedding the bride chose a floor length gown of pure silk taffeta and imported Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice featured a portrait neckline, accented with an overlay of jeweled lace. A puffed panel shape butterfly, which tapered from the back of the waist into the flowing train, was also of pure silk taffeta.

The bouffant skirt was sprinkled with jeweled appliques of the imported lace and extended into an aisle-wide train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was held in place by a jeweled crown. She carried a loose cascade of strob-anotis and an orchid on a lace covered prayerbook. Mr. Schmit escorted his daughter to the altar.

Mrs. Bernard Troshynski, Lincoln, was matron of honor. Miss Catherine Schmit, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Eleanor Schmit, sister of the bride, and Carol Faust, Omaha, and Lorene Ziska, Pueblo, Colo.

Each wore a sheath dress of lavender satin embossed cotton. The lavender tulle overskirts featured a bow of the same material. Their crowns were made of lavender carnations.

Flower girls were Sharon Osborne Meyer, Frank J. Mancuso, Clarence Schmit, Raymond Schmit, Ben Schmit, Robert Guthevisky, Richard Osborne, Jr., Frank Kilmer, Edward Troshynski, Richard Schmit and Edward Rome. A dinner was held after the ceremony for 125 guests and a reception for 400. They were held at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Both were supervised by Mrs. Ruth Barnes, Mrs. Melvin Meals and Mrs. Marvin Meals. Mrs. Joseph Distraup and Mrs. Owen Galigan assisted.

Others assisting were Mesdames Milo Meyer, Frank J. Mancuso, Clarence Schmit, Raymond Schmit, Ben Schmit, Robert Guthevisky, Richard Osborne, Jr., Frank Kilmer, Edward Troshynski, Richard Schmit and Edward Rome. The couple were graduated from St. Joseph's Hall, Atkinson. The bride has been employed as a dental assistant by Dr. L. E. Myers at Omaha. The bridegroom is employed by Wilson's Meat Co. He has served two years in the U. S. Army.

After a wedding trip the couple will reside at Guthrie Center.

Double A Auction

MARKET REPORT

NOW—Remember our first nice run of the summer season will be next Tuesday, June 23rd. Included in the early listings are 100 head of Blackwhiteface mixed steers and heifer calves, wts. 375 to 400 lbs. Also listed are 3 carloads of feeding heifers, 250 to 300 lbs. If you have cattle you want listed for his special sale phone 5141, Atkinson, and list them by Friday Noon.

P.S.—Also listed for next Tuesday's Auction are 5 Registered Angus Breeding bulls, coming 2 year old, proven sires.

Always an Auction Every Tuesday, June 16th, Auction. Cattle receipts were largely fat cows, however for the first time some sprinkling of stock cattle were included. Though prices seemed a little easier on these butcher cattle it was largely a very favorable weighing condition for the sellers which made the difference. The warm weather, combined with some pure Sandhill water put on some terrific fills, the kind you can't get anyplace but at your local market. It's the net dollars that count! Best beef cows sold from $18.25 to $20.00 with some heiferettes to $21.50, canners and cut cutters $14.75 on the shelly kinds to $18.00 cwt. Bulls $19.75 to $22.00 cwt. Some 550 just good Angus fall calves sold at $35.85 cwt. with the heifer mates going at $30.00 cwt. Not enough yearling weight cattle to test the market.
