

Ewing Midgets Win over O'Neill

By Mrs. H. R. Harris

The Ewing Midgets came out winners in the O'Neill-Ewing baseball game Sunday afternoon at Ewing with a score of 4 to 3.

Pitcher for O'Neill was Belina and Bollwitt for Ewing.

Leading hitters for O'Neill were Gilg with a double and Minarik, who doubled for Ewing. Tom Wanser stole home with the winning score.

Next Sunday's game will be with Chambers at Ewing. Let's have a good crowd to support the home team. Parents of players can boost the morale of the players by their presence. Community interest would be appreciated by Dean Pofhal, coach, who spends two evenings a week for practices as well as time for games during the week for this vacation time activity.

Twenty-four members and sixteen children were present at the meeting of the Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roland Horde in Ewing. Guests were Mesdames Will Conner, Ben Larsen, C. C. Hahlbeck, Dewitt Gunter and Ella Zeilms.

"Maturity in Christ" was the theme of the lesson presented by Mrs. Lee Fink. Scripture readings were taken from Philippians 3:12-16, Ephesians 4:11-16. The group which is studying the Book of Acts, included the lesson Acts 16:1-34 and Acts 19:1. Mrs. Lionel Gunter led the prayer cycle.

Mrs. Wilbur Bennett presided at the business meeting. Plans were made to entertain June 29 for Rev. William Bomer of Oklahoma City, Okla., a former pastor of the Ewing United Presbyterian church and a group of young people, who have been vacationing in the Black Hills.

The Society purchased a guest book for the church. Lunch was served by Mrs. Horde with Mrs. Veal Tuttle as cohostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Walcott and children of El Paso, Tex., came June 18 to visit at the home of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Shrader and family.

Mrs. Gene Zimmerman, who accompanied her mother, Mrs. R. G. Rocky, back to her home at West Palm Beach, Fla., returned home June 18 after remaining there for a ten day visit with her parents and other relatives.

Mrs. Victor Cram entertained a number of ladies at a party at her home Tuesday afternoon, June 16. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Zimmerman spent Father's day at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zimmerman at Battle Creek. The wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Zimmerman was also celebrated at the family gathering.

John Rasmussen of Wilbur is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoag. He is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Hoag. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hoag, who spent the weekend in Ewing, left Monday morning to return to their home in Omaha. Enroute home they planned to visit her father, Perry Saiser, who is a patient at a Lincoln hospital. His condition shows some improvement.

Guests for dinner on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoag were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hoag and son of Omaha, John Rasmussen of Wilbur and Mrs. Jessie Angus of Ewing.

The Church of the Nazarene will hold revival meetings from June 28 to July 12 beginning at 8 o'clock each evening. Rev. H. Y. Platter, a nation-wide evangelist, will be the guest speaker. He has worked with the Salvation Army. He has been in the ministry for 24 years. At present he is pastor of the Inter-denominational Church at Campbells Station, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Krachie and grandson, Jerry Jeffersons, have gone on their annual vacation trip to Minnesota, where they expect to do some fishing.

Mrs. Wayne Shrader and children and Miss Ina Bennett of Ewing and Mr. and Mrs. Don Walcott and children of El Paso, Texas went to Lincoln on Saturday to spend the week. The will be guests of Mrs. Ruth Waples, mother of Mrs. Shrader and Mrs. Walcott and other relatives.

Mrs. C. E. McBlane and daughter, Peggy Lou arrived in Ewing on Thursday to visit her parents, Dr. and Mrs. William H. Ross. They made the long trip from Pakistan by plane, where the McBlanes are missionaries.

Mr. McBlane and son, George are expected the last of the week after transacting some business while enroute to Ewing.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chmiel spent the weekend at LeFerne, Minn. Guests at the Harold Savidge home. Their children, who had spent the week there accompanied them home.

Guests attending the worship hour service at the First Methodist Church Sunday morning were Mr. and Mrs. John Farris of Council Bluffs, Ia., and Mrs. and Mrs. Howard Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Roland, all from Wichita, Kansas.

Mrs. J. L. Pruden and her daughter, Mrs. S. M. Burtwistle left Sunday to attend the national convention of home economics and vocational homemaking at Milwaukee, Wis. Mrs. Burtwistle taught home economics at the Chambers high school the past year.

Weekend guests at the home of Mrs. Hallie Maben were her sisters, Mrs. Jessie Wunner of Council Bluffs, Iowa and Mrs. Gussie McDonald of Wisner.

Mrs. Hallie Maben attended the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Housh of Santiago, Calif., held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Drayton at Orchard on Sunday.

Mrs. Housh is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Maben. Others attending from Ewing were Mr. and Mrs. Sis Ebengaard and Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Hamilton and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hamilton and their daughter, Bonna of Creighton returned last week from a vacation trip which took them through eleven western states covering over five thousand miles.

Gloria, Dyanna and Mark Hamilton were guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Boelter at Creighton during the absence of their parents.

James Turner of Neligh was a guest on Father's day at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bergstrom and Kay.

Mr. and Mrs. James Minarik and family and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Schroeder and children spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Mackel at Elgin.

Wilbur Bennett had the misfortune to be injured June 18 afternoon about four o'clock while working in the field. Mr. Bennett was operating a four row eli with a tractor.

In some manner, as he turned at the end of the row he reached for a tree branch to hold it out of his way, causing him to lose his balance, falling between the tractor and eli which passed over him. He was able to get up and drive the tractor to the house. He was taken to St. Anthony's hospital at O'Neill. He had five ribs broken on his left side and was badly bruised on his right arm and other places on his body.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boies Jr. of Cheyenne, Wyo., left for home on Sunday after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Boies Sr., and family and his grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Boies and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tams Sr., and family spent Sunday at Royal with relatives.

Weekend guests at the Merton Dierks home were his daughter, Mrs. Wilda Carr of Holdrege; Nebr. his grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spencer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Roland all of Wichita, Kansas. Paul Waters of Omaha spent the weekend with his wife, Mrs. Waters and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Dierks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sprout of Omaha spent a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Dierks. They left Tuesday on a business trip in the western part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rotherham spent Sunday visiting with his brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Rotherham and family at Niobrara.

Mrs. Pauline Noffke who has been a patient at St. Anthony's hospital for the past ten days, came home on Tuesday. Mrs. Frank Noffke went after her.

Monica Munn celebrated her eighth birthday anniversary on Monday. In honor of the occasion, her mother invited several little friends to be her guests for the afternoon. Outdoor games were played in charge of Kay Bergstrom and Mary Ann Bauer. Monica received many nice gifts. Mrs. Dale Napier baked and decorated a lovely "doll" birthday cake. Lunch was served on the big picnic table on the lawn by Mrs. Munn.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Knapp made a combined business and pleasure trip to Ogalalla over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Shaw have purchased the property recently occupied by Mrs. Frank Wilson. They have begun work, doing some remodeling on the interior.

Mrs. George Frances of Spencer was a weekend guest at the home of Mrs. Edna Lofquest. On Sunday, Mrs. Lofquest, Mrs. Frances, Mrs. Carl Miller and son attended a meeting at the Bethany church at Amelia.

Mrs. Reuben Meyers and daughter, Beverly of Neligh, were Wednesday guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. Edna Lofquest.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hobbs returned home Thursday from a vacation trip which took them in to Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and Colorado.

Larry Wanser is now employed at Geneva, Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Wanser went to Omaha on Tuesday where they met Bridget and Kay O'Brien who came by plane from Chicago. They will be guests at the Wanser home for a part of their summer vacation.

Kitty Wanser spent the weekend in Omaha with her sister, Miss Judy Wanser. She also visited a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Walker and family at Nel-folk.
