

Double Ceremony For Davis Sisters

St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Atkinson was the scene June 17 of the double wedding of Sharon Kay and Sandra Lee Davis, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Davis, Atkinson. Sharon was married to Michael J. Wenner, Atkinson and Sandra was married to Ivo L. Shald, Stuart.

The Rev. Richard J. Parr officiated at the 9 a.m. double ring ceremony. Soloist Jim Hytrek, Stuart, sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day," accompanied by Leona Kilmurry.

The date chosen for the wedding was also the birthday of the father of the two brides. Both were escorted to the altar by their father.

Sharon wore a gown of hand clipped Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. The elongated bodice featured a modified sabbina neckline, framed in appliques of lace, and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant floor length skirt of tulle featured a deep insert of lace over a wide flounce of tulle.

Sandra appeared in a gown fashioned of embroidered tulle and chiffon taffeta. The sculptured bodice was styled with a modified scoop neckline framed in lace appliques and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant floor length skirt of tulle featured a deep insert of lace over a wide flounce of tulle.

The sisters both wore finger tip veils of imported silk illusion caught to a half crown of swiss braid intertwined with pearls. They carried bouquets of sweetheart roses and Stephanotis on lace covered prayer books.

Attending Mrs. Shald were Mary Ann Straka, Atkinson, maid of honor, and bridesmaid, Carol Embrey, Atkinson, Kerry Frisch, Atkinson, was ringbearer.

Mrs. Wenner's attendants were Mrs. Leona Kabeseman, Yankton, matron of honor and sister of the groom, and bridesmaid Minnie O'Connell. Ring bearer was Steve Davis, Stuart.

The attendants of the brides all wore Nile green silk organza styled with fitted bodices and draped cowl necklines with bow accents at the shoulder line and sleeves. The bouffant ballerina skirts were accented with tiny satin bows. They wore matching head bands and carried green carnations on lace fans.

Best man for Mr. Shald was Kenny Batenhorst, Atkinson. Groomsman was Henry Murphy, Stuart, and ushers were Milton Weichman and Jack Tielke, both of Stuart.

Attending his brother as best man was John Wenner Jr., Atkinson. Groomsman was Don Schaaf and ushers were Pat Laible, Atkinson and Johnny Kabeseman, Yankton.

A dinner for 100 guests followed the ceremony and a reception was given later at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Atkinson for 250 guests.

Serving the reception for Mrs. Wenner were the Misses Ethel Straka and Caroline Backhaus, the guest table; Marilyn Raymer at the guest book, and Artha Pacheco, Atkinson and Johnny Kabeseman, Yankton.

Serving at the dinner for Mrs. Wenner were Ethel Straka, Caroline Backhaus, Artha Pacheco, Clauden Raymer and Delores Engler. Serving at the reception for Mrs. Shald were Mrs. Carrie Keating, Mrs. Frank Determan and Barbara Milnar, Mrs. Milton Weichman and Mrs. Jack Tielke attended the gift table and Jeannette Osborne was in charge of the guest book.

Dinner servers for Mrs. Shald were Misses Connie Hitchcock, Janith Gans, Janice Engler, Karen Kaup and Shirley Halstead.

For her traveling attire, Mrs. Shald wore a pale pink sheath dress with white accessories. Following the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Shald will be at home in Stuart.

Mrs. Wenner chose for her going away dress, a Nile green sheath with white accessories. Following a wedding trip to the Black Hills and Wyoming the Wenners will be at home in Atkinson where he is played in ranching.

Thorell-Canning Vows Exchanged in Bristow

Trinity Lutheran Church at Bristow was the scene of a double ring candlelight ceremony June 20th uniting in marriage Connie Lou Thorell, Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Thorell, Bristow and Richard Canning, Omaha, son of Mrs. William Canning Wayne.

The Rev. Bernard Nelson officiated. Mrs. Benard Nelson accompanied Mrs. Joe Fuhr, Beatrice, aunt of the bride, who sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March". She wore a floor-length gown of Rochelle lace and tulle over satin. The snug fitting Elizabethan bodice featured a V-neckline, defined by bias folds of the tulle, and long pointed sleeves. A bouffant skirt was fashioned with a front panel of lace and a cascade of ruffles of alternate tulle and lace extending into a chapel train in the back.

Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was caught by a crown of tulle studded with seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a white ribbon.

Barbara Thorell, Bristow, was her sister's maid-of-honor. Bridesmaid was Carol Prokop of Omaha. They were identically dressed in ballerina frocks of white lace over blue taffeta with scoop necklines and dropped waistlines, accented with matching blue satin bows in front with streamers falling to the hemline of the full circular skirts.
