SPECIAL INVITATION FROM THE DOUBLE A AUCTIONS

"The Old Reliable" Atkinson Livestock market will hold their first large Sale of the Fall season Tuesday, August 4th, 1:00 p.m. We'll have around 1,000 to 1,200 cattle including a large run of fall calves, yearlings and 50 head of Angus cows to calve this fall, as well as some first calf Hereford Heifers. Some of the Angus Fall heifer calves offered will be herd replacement quality. All in all, we'll have a good showing of cattle, all the more reason why you should plan to be on the market with whatever cattle you have to sell. This will be a well advertised sale, our mailing list contains over 7000 names, the same cattle buyers who have given this market the tops in Both Hereford and Angus cattle Sales across the nation the past twelve months. More proof too that buyers like the friendly atmosphere around the Double A Auctions, and more especially the service rendered. We don't pretend to know what's ahead this marketing season—we recognize a lot of factors which are bound to influence cattle prices, but the one thing which we'd like to remind you of is that your consignments to the Double A Auctions will receive the best Hay Available, good clean water, clean pens and will be advertised and sold in the manner which will net the most dollars to you, our consignor. May we see you Tuesday, or drop us a line if you would like us to see your cattle, we may be at your neighbors, anyway, let's have a look at yours the same trip !!!
