(Advertisement) Fluffy Peach Parfait Is An 'Elegant Dessert'

If your summer party plans call for an elegant dessert that's rich but not heavy, try this fluffy peach parfait. Owen Parkinson, local retail salesman at the Meadow Gold Dairy gave us the recipe with the tip that the cottage cheese which is among the ingredients makes a surprisingly smooth, thick sauce when folded into melted marshmallows. Fresh peach slices lend tartness.

The unusual dessert was developed by Beatrice Cooke, director of the company's test kitchens in Chicago. It may be prepared shortly before a party and kept chilled in the refrigerator until serving time.

Peach Coconut Parfaits (Eight servings) 24 marshmallows 2 tablespoons milk 2 cups cottage cheese, sieved 1 1/2 cups sliced fresh peaches 1 cup whipping cream, whipped 1 4-oz. can moist shredded coconut Green food coloring 1/2 cup more whipping cream, whipped Melt marshmallows in milk over low heat; cook. Stir in cottage cheese. Reserve eight peach slices for garnish and cut remaining sliced in thirds. Fold them into the marshmallow mixture. Fold in whipped cream and coconut. Chill thoroughly. Add a few drops of green food coloring to remaining whipped cream to tint a light green. Spoon tinted whipped cream over scoops of dessert in parfait glasses. Top each with a peach slice.

Ada Cox Rites In Chambers

Ada Porter Eisele, daughter of William and Caroline Eisele was born March 8, 1865, at Port Royal, Pa., and departed this life July 24, 1959, at the St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill, at the age of 94 years, 4 months and 16 days.

She came with her parents, brothers and sisters to a homestead in Holt county about 10 miles southwest of Chambers in 1881. September 3, 1895, she was united in marriage to John B. Cox, who preceded her in death March 7, 1942. They were married on their own homestead on which she lived until she passed away. To this union three daughters were born, they are Miss Hazel Cox of Columbus, Mrs. George (Edith) Weber of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Mrs. Edgar (Rosa) DeHart of Chambers.

Mrs. Cox was the eldest of a family of 10 children. She united with the Methodist church while quite young and remained a member of the Chambers Methodist church until her death. She was a devoted wife and mother and being a very energetic person she worked hard caring for her home and family and as was the custom of those early days she often carried a man's work in the fields.

She was a great lover of the beauties of nature, especially did she love flowers of which she grew a great number. She was a good neighbor and always gave a helping hand wherever needed. She was always very active and being blessed with reasonably good health, she did her own work until about 4 years ago, and after that she was up and around until she was taken to the hospital after suffering a heart attack. Five days later she passed away.

She is survived by her three daughters, two granddaughters and one grandson. She also leaves several nephews and nieces. She also is survived by a sister, Mrs. Irene Nutcher of Santa Cruz, Calif., and a host of friends and neighbors.

Funeral services were conducted Monday, July 27, at 10 a.m. at the Methodist church in Chambers by the pastor, Rev. Charles F. Cox. The pallbearers were C. V. Robertson, A. A. Walter, E. R. Carpenter, John Ritterbusch, Charles Wright, and Henry Fleck.

Mrs. Gaius Wintermote and Mrs. Kenneth Adams sang "Ivory Palaces" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere". They were accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Elwyn Robertson. Mrs. E. R. Carpenter and Mrs. C. V. Robertson had charge of the flowers. Burial was in the Chamber's cemetery.
