

Mrs. Jack Carney, formerly Miss Margaret O'Boyle. The wedding took place August 1 at St. Pius X church in Omaha.

Jack Carney is Wed To Margaret O'Boyle

Miss Margaret O'Boyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. O'Boyle of Omaha became the bride of Jack Carney, son of Leo Carney, O'Neill on August 1, at St. Pius X church in Omaha. The Rev. T. O'Brien officiated.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly lace over ruffled net. Iridescent beads surrounded the neckline. Her bouquet was a cascade of white mums.

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. C. M. Evans, Kansas City, Mo. Bridesmaids were Miss Michaela O'Boyle, sister of the bride and Miss Dolores Brown. The bride's attendants wore white embroidered sheath dresses with an overskirt of shaded lavender. They carried nosegays of lavender asters.

John Halbur was best man. Ushers were Joe Uhl, Jess Wills, Pat Hickey, Bob Beckenhauer and Bob Holsclaw.

Kathie Evans, Kansas City, Mo., niece of the bride, was flower girl. Mr. and Mrs. B. J. O'Boyle sang.

A reception and breakfast was held at the home of the bride's parents in Omaha. The couple planned a wedding trip to Colorado. For her going away dress, the bride chose a blue and white checked summer suit with blue accessories.

Mrs. Carney is a graduate of Holy Name Academy and Creighton University.

The couple will be at home at 1624 N. 33rd St. in Omaha.

talked by Mrs. Paul Nelson, O'Neill.

Misses Sharon and Janet Klingler and Mrs. Charlotte Huston were in charge of the gifts. Sandra Klingler presided at the guest book.

Pairing was Mrs. Bill Vaughn and Mrs. Walter Miller served punch. Classmates of the bride assisted with the serving, also. Stems and table decorations.

The flowers for the wedding were furnished by Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Morgan who 28 years ago furnished flowers for the wedding of the bride's parents.

For her traveling attire the bride wore a white nylon sheath dress with a rose corsage. They planned a trip to the Black Hills and on their return will live in Atkinson where the bridegroom is employed.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of the Atkinson high school. Mr. Klingler is now employed at the Kramer Machine shop.

Hendricks-Klingler Vows Exchanged in Atkinson

Markita LaRae Hendricks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hendricks, and Richard Klingler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Klingler, all of Atkinson, were united in marriage at 1 p.m. August 5 at the Wesleyan Methodist church.

Rev. Steinkamp performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with colored gladioli and branch candelabra. Lighting the candles were Arlin Hendricks and Richard Huston.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a floor length gown of white rose-point lace and nylon tulle. The fitted bodice was designed with hand clipped flowers centered with pearls and sequins. The long sleeves ended in the traditional bridal point.

The fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was caught to a shell of lace and pearls. She wore single strand of pearls. Her colonial bouquet was of yellow sweetheart roses on a white Bible with white streamers tipped with yellow roses.

Shirley Halstead, Atkinson, was the bride's maid-of-honor, wearing a floor length gown of orchid net over taffeta with yellow accessories. Mavis Rahn was bridesmaid wearing a yellow gown identical to that of the maid of honor with orchid accessories.

Best men were Leon Hendricks, brother of the bride, and Dale Dunn. Flower girls were Rebecca Hendricks and Myra Klingler. They carried baskets of yellow sweetheart rose petals. Ring bearers were Markie Hendricks and Bobby Hendricks.

Mrs. Robert Collins, cousin of the bride, played traditional music and the wedding march. She accompanied soloist Robert Hendricks who sang "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mother of the bride wore a blue sheath of silk lace organza with dark blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dark blue lace dresses. Both wore yellow rose corsages.

A reception for 200 guests followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Leon Hendricks cut the pink and white four tier cake which was
