Miss Lonnie Langan, Leonard Brown Wed

The wedding ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Lonnie Langan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Langan, O'Neill, and Leonard Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, Chambers, took place at 10 a.m., August 10, at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill. Rev. Robert Duffy officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor length gown of white French imported lace and nylon tulle over hoops. The basque bodice featured a touch of illusion at the neckline, a scalloped wing-tipped collar and long sleeves that tapered to bridal points at the wrists. The bouffant skirt was styled with flounces of nylon tulle, trimmed with gathered bands of hand-clipped lace and was worn over a slip of fine satin. She carried a colonial bouquet.

Mrs. Barney Poss, Omaha, matron-of-honor, was gowned in a ballerina length dress of dior blue crystalline over satin. A scalloped hemline was formed by tucking up the skirt at intervals with tiny bows of satin. She wore a matching crown of blue with seed pearls and a short veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink feathered carnations.

Dale Wood, Chambers, was the bestman, Mike Langan, brother of the bride, O'Neill, and Bernard Grimes, Chambers, were ushers.

Miss Sharlene Shoemaker, organist accompanied Miss Sharon Murray, who sang "Mother Beloved" and "On This Day".

Following the ceremony a dinner was given at 11:30 and reception was held from two until four at the Town House. A three tier white wedding cake decorated with white bells and blue roses was cut and served by Bethel Daniels and Charlene Boyle. Irene Brown presided at the guest book. Joanne Lansworth and LaDonna McNulty had charge of the gifts, Mary Janice Remter poured the punch and Mrs. Jerry Cuddy poured coffee.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in O'Neill, where Mr. Brown is employed as a meat cutter at Safeway Stores. Mrs. Brown is employed by Northwestern Bell Telephone Company as an operator.

For traveling the bride chose a black sheath dress with white accessories.

The bride attended St. Mary's Academy in O'Neill and the bridegroom attended Chambers high school.
