Crumley, Walker Wed Saturday

Miss Sharon Crumly and Ed Walker were united in marriage Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Page Methodist church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyndell Crumly and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Walker, all of Page.

the bride chose a ballerina length gown with a full skirt encircled in tiers of nylon net over taffeta. Her lace bodice featured a soft draped neckline. The bride's veil fashioned of nylon tulle and edged in chantilly lace. A small band of flowers held it in place.

Her bouquet was of white feathered carnations and lily of the valley. Her only jewelry was a cultured pearl in a silver leaf setting, gift of the bridegroom.

All of the bridal attendants were sisters of the bride. Lura Anne Crumly was maid of honor and Bonnie and Peggy Crumly were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of lavender nylon with white flocking and white accessories. Each carried a deep red happiness rose.

Attending the bridegroom was Bob Baber, Plainview, cousin of the groom, as best man, Grooms-men were Hank Alfrey, Louismen, and Bill Urwieler, Laurel.

Miss Kathleen Walker was in charge of the guest book.
 Miss Faye Rutherford played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Marilyn Terrill who sang, "I Love You Truly," "The Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer." The altar was decorated with woven branch candelabra and baskets of gladioli.

The mother of the bride chose an aqua dress of nylon mesh with white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a pink dress with white accessories and both wore white corsages.

A reception given by the bride's parents followed in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The serving table was centered by the wedding cake, baked and cut by Mrs. Keith Weyer, Plainview, aunt of the bridegroom. The Misses Dixie Nisson and Connie Riese served the cake while Miss Janice Crumly, Omaha, poured punch and Miss Donna Crumly, Page, poured coffee.

Servers were Joyce Green, Juanita and Vivian Ragland and Kay Nissen. In charge of the gift table were Mrs. Larry Heiss, Mrs. Bob Prill and Miss Myrna Heiss. For her going away outfit, the bride chose a yellow cotton dress with an embroidered bolero jacket and white accessories.

 The couple will be at home in Cairo where the bridegroom will teach.
