

Strong - Lewis Wed

In O'Neill Church

Lois Jean Strong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strong of Chambers, and Duane Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Lewis of Ainsworth, were united in marriage at 2 p.m., August 11, at the Wesleyan Methodist church in O'Neill.

Rev. Melvin Grosenbach of Gordon performed the ceremony before an arched background banked with baskets of gladioli and ferns.

Escorted to the altar by her father the bride wore a floor-length gown of Alencon lace and nylon tulle. The bodice was styled with a tiny scalloped stand-up collar and long sleeves that tapered to bridal points at the wrist. The full gathered skirt was trimmed with wide bands of lace across the front and featured shadow ruffles of nylon tulle in back.

The bride's veil of double illusion was lace, trimmed to match the gown. The head piece was tiara style trimmed in tiny pearls and sequins.

Her bouquet was of white roses and lily of the valley with white satin streamers carried on a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride's sister, Demaris Strong was maid of honor. A classmate, Linda Biedent of Darby, Mont., and the bridegroom's sister, Roberta Morrow of Ainsworth were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of ballerina length, made by the bride. Each was a different shade of blue nylon net over the same shade of blue taffeta. They each carried a bouquet of pink carnations and wore a flowered headband.

The bridegroom's attendants were Miss Frazee, hostess, Blair Williams and Keith Lewis, all of Ainsworth.

Miss Frazee Rutherford played the traditional wedding marches on the organ and accompanied the soloists Delores Strong, who sang "Through the Years" which she sang at her own wedding two years ago, the bridegroom sang "Because" and Willene Lloyd sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The mother of the bride chose a pink dress of nylon mesh with white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a blue dress with white accessories and each mother and grandmother wore white corsages.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb had charge of the flowers.

A reception given by the bride's parents followed in the church parlors. The serving table was centered by the wedding cake baked by the bride's mother and cut by Iona Wayman. As a centerpiece to the bride's table was a panorama bell with a garden scene in it and the bride and bridegroom in the midst. This was made by the bride's mother at the anniversary of their engagement.

Mrs. Walter Anson of Bristow, aunt of the bride, and Roberta Sample of Scottsbluff had charge of the gifts. The servers were Vergene Rasmussen of Norfolk, Lois Ellsberry of Orchard and Velda Ernst of O'Neill.

During the reception Willene Lloyd sang "I Love You Truly" and Barbara Sutton of Lincoln joined her in "Whither Thou Goest".

For her going away outfit the bride chose a navy blue dress with white accessories using the roses from her bouquet as a corsage.

They each taught school the past year. The bride taught in Holt county and the bridegroom in Brown county.

After a short wedding trip they will resume their teaching.

Schultz-Cross Rites In Methodist Church

Before an altar decorated with white gladioli and pompon mums, and four branch candelabra, Miss Carol Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Schultz, Atkinson, became the bride of Richard and Mrs. Liveringhouse, Atkinson, Sioux City, Ia.

Rev. Charles Gas performed the double-ring ceremony Sunday at 3 p.m. at the Methodist church in Atkinson before 250 guests.

Given away in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of silk organza and Alencon lace. The gown featured a Sabrina neckline and floating panels of silk organza with lace appliques that flowed into the chapel train. She carried a white Bible with orchid and rosebuds on streamers.

Frances Cross, Sioux City, Ia., sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Burkholder, Woodbine, Ia., and Caroline Skopec, Atkinson. They wore identical gowns of white lace over blue taffeta with flared skirts and blue satine bows in the back. Their accessories were white lace gloves and pearl earrings and they carried cascade bouquets of blue daisies. Jerome Pugsley, Wayne, was best man. Ushers were Delaine David, Sioux City, Ia., and Louis Allison, Wakefield. Candelighters were Barbara and Marjorie Siebken, Denver, Colo.

Audrey Coxbill, Atkinson, accompanied Mrs. Jerome Pugsley, Wayne, who sang the "Lord's Prayer".

Following the ceremony a reception for 100 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. For her traveling attire, the bride chose a mint green two-piece dress with black accessories. The couple took a wedding trip to Lake Okoboji.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cross are graduates of Wayne State Teachers College. Following their wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Pender where the bridegroom will teach this fall. Mrs. Cross will teach in Thurston.
