Rock Falls News

By Mrs. Floyd Johnson

It seems our signs of autumn went askew just about the same as did indications and signs of rain during the past hot, dry spell. This one is inclined to think that a vacation in the vicinity of Frazier, Colo. would be a good solution to it all, at any rate, a cooling-off spell, free from the whirl of electric fans.

Norma Widfeldt, accompanied by her mother and Jimmy, made an early morning business call at the Floyd Johnson home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Derickson and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Yanel were picnicking at Ft. Randall Sunday. Sam tried his luck at a little water skiing. He didn't mind getting wet, but the next day he was painfully reminded of muscles he didn't know he had.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jorging and children and nephew, Freddy Jorging, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Albert Widfeldt home. Mr. and Mrs. John Schantz and family entertained Sunday evening with an outdoor cook-out. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson and Linda, Dan Rakes and Lester Waterman. They were served lots of barbecued chicken, potatoes cooked on the coals and garden fresh tomatoes with plenty of hot coffee and kool-aid and butter scotch pie for dessert.

Mrs. Mary Tomlinson and son, Larry were afternoon and supper guests of the Don Hynes family September 4. Larry was to leave Sunday for Lincoln where he is going to attend the university. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Derickson and boys were Monday evening callers at the Floyd Johnson home.

Mrs. Floyd Johnson received a letter from her nephew, Russell Breiner, who is stationed at Ft.ida, Germany, near the East German border. He states it isn't too bad there, at least he hadn't run into much of anything so far, but that he would have plenty of time to find out, since he was scheduled to be there two years. He enlisted last spring. Elwin Grutsch was a Friday afternoon caller at the James Curran home. Mr. and Mrs. Jim McNulty were Friday evening visitors of the James Curran family. Mr. and Mrs. John Grutsch, sr. of O'Neill have been at the farm home since Friday while Elwin is attending the fair in Lincoln. Their daughter, Mrs. Lesley Stevens and husband of Oakdale were Sunday overnight guests. Monday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. John Grutsch visited at the James Curran home.
