Club Notes

O'Neill Women's Club
 The October meeting of the O'Neill Women's Club will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Methodist church parlors. The meeting is the annual mum show. Any members able to do so, are urged to bring an arrangement of mums to add to the program. Prizes will be given. The yearbooks will also be available at this meeting.

Lutheran Women's Missionary
 Three O'Neill women attended a zone meeting of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League in Jamison Tuesday. They were Mrs. A. S. Gedwilo, Mrs. Joe McLeish and Mrs. Duane McKay. Rev. Gedwilo accompanied the women.
 Zone officers were elected at the meeting. Women from this area chosen for officers were Mrs. Duane Grossnicklaus, Chambers, treasurer, and Mrs. Harold Micanek, Lynch, secretary.
 Mrs. J. W. Walters, Chambers, gave a report on the national convention in Toronto, Canada, which she attended in September.

NTTF
 Mrs. Jim Donohoe was hostess September 30 to NTF bridge club. A guest was Mrs. John Donohoe. Winners were Mrs. Don Templemeyer and Mrs. John Donohoe.
 Next meeting will be Wednesday with Mrs. George Janousek.

Rebekah
 Members of the O'Neill Rebekah Lodge held initiation Friday night with women from the Paige and Inman lodges as guests. About 48 were in attendance.
 Candidates for initiation were Mrs. Naomi Spall, Mrs. Nona Beckwith and Mrs. Priscilla Schumann. Guests of honor were the state assembly president and warden. Lunch was served following the meeting.

MM
 MM club members met Tuesday at the Paul Shierk home. Mrs. C. W. Porter was a guest. Winners were Mrs. H. L. Lindberg and Mrs. H. G. Kruse. Next meeting will be in two weeks.

Couples Club
 Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bunkers entertained members of the Couples Club in their home Sunday evening. Winners were Mrs. Tom Cronin and Mr. Bunkers.

Miss Lehn Returns
 Miss LeVeta Lehn returned home recently from a combination convention and vacation trip to New York, N. Y. Following the close of the American Dental Assistants' Association convention, Miss Ethel Lehn, Waukegan, Ill., joined her sister, Miss Lehn, in New York for several days.
 Enroute home, Miss Lehn stopped briefly in Waukegan with her sister and in Wahoo, for a short visit with her brother and family. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lehn.

P.T.A. Meeting
 The P.T.A. association meeting was held Monday evening at the O'Neill public school. Rev. Gedwilo opened the meeting with prayer. Marvin Miller gave a talk on fire prevention and Sgt. Shorney spoke on bicycle safety. A carnival was discussed. It will be held October 24 and consist of 20 booths, a snack stand and others. Anyone having articles suitable for the white elephant stand should contact Mrs. Frank Eppenbach.
 The association now has 118 members. Lunch was served by the first grade mothers.
