By Miss Florence Lindsey

Miss Venita White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen White celebrated her 16th birthday anniversary Friday, Oct. 23. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burge and family to Chambers Friday evening to attend the football game and while away about forty neighbors gathered at her home and surprised her upon her return from the game. She received many gifts and a lunch was enjoyed.

The following families were present: S. C. Barnett, Louis Burgett, Paul Fisher, Leon Thompson, Texas Madsen, Bud Clemens, Clyde Burge, Clayton Burge, Mrs. Lizzie Dexter, Edward Coolidge, Lindbergs, Edith Anderson, Roger, Darla and Debra Waldo and Lonnie Sparks.

Mrs. Delia Ernst received a letter from her niece, Mrs. Leo Marcellus (Helen Waldman) of Montebello, Calif. in which she told of the robbery of their jewelry and electrical appliance shop. The loss amounted to about $4,000. The thieves wore gloves, so they could not obtain finger prints.

Mrs. and Mrs. August Boltz and their son and family of Grand Island visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Berry Sunday.

Mrs. Orlan was able to resume his duties as pastor of the Amelia and Chambers churches Sunday.

He has been on a months absence because of illness.

The Amelia Progressive club met Wednesday, Oct. 21 at the home of Mrs. Vern Sageser. There were eight members present. Mrs. Emma Fisher presented the lesson on "Know Your Car" which with material she gathered from other sources, was very interesting.

Next meeting will be with Mrs. Bernard Blackmore. There will be a lesson on Christmas Gift Ideas. Each member is asked to bring patterns and ideas for toys or gifts.

Most people aren't prepared for surprises and such proved to be the case with Mrs. Delia Ernst, when a group of ladies went to her home an evening earlier than her birthday anniversary October 22 to help her celebrate the occasion.

Those present were Mrs. B. W. Waldo, Mrs. Frank Pierce, Mrs. Blossom Butler, Mrs. Blake Ott, Mrs. Floyd Adams, Mrs. Merle Ericson, Mrs. Vern Sageser, Mrs. Edith Anderson, Mrs. Emma Lindsey, Mrs. Ralph Rees, Mrs. Stella Sparks and Miss Florence Lindsey.
