Novel Pork Chop Dinner

Suggested by R. Stowell

With pork a real bargain meat this fall, food shoppers undoubtedly will be buying and serving lots of it. Here's a novel way with pork chops you may well wish to try. Rex Stowell, local salesman of the Meadow Gold Dairy sent it to us.

It's a meal-in-one-dish created by Beatrice Cooke, test kitchen director for the company's Chicago plant. Pork chops, potatoes and tomatoes are baked together in spicy cheese sauce.

Pork Chop Casserole
(Six servings)

1/4 cup butter
1/4 cup flour
2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons dry mustard
2 cups milk
2 cups grated process American cheese
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
6 cups sliced potatoes, partially cooked
6 pork chops, cut 1/2 inch thick
1 tablespoon butter
Salt, pepper, paprika
6 onion slices
6 tomato slices, cut 1/4 inch thick
2 tablespoons melted butter
1/4 teaspoon oregano, salt, pepper
Melt 1/4 cup butter in saucepan. Stir in flour, salt and dry mustard. Gradually add milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Add 1 1/2 cups cheese; cook until cheese melts. Stir in green pepper. Spoon potatoes into a buttered 7 1/2 by 12 1/2 by 2 inch baking pan. Pour cheese sauce over them. Brown pork chops in 1 tablespoon butter. Season with salt, pepper and paprika. Arrange chops on potato mixture. Put an onion slice on each chop and bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Place tomato slices on onions. Brush with butter; sprinkle with salt, pepper, oregano and 1/2 cup remaining cheese. Bake 15 minutes more or until chops are tender.
