By Mrs. Floyd Johnson

Did you escape the eerie ghosts and witches on Saturday night? They may have been prowling, but we're inclined to think the going was slow up by the heavy snow. Your reporter even missed seeing the little goblins of district 33, who ordinarily come around demanding "tricks or treats." Of course they may have decided it was scarcely worth the effort, since they had such a lively party at school on Friday afternoon and generous treats from their teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Yantzi and children, Peggy and Steve of Chadron spent the past week in the vicinity visiting relatives.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Bill Yantzi, Peggy and Steve, Sam Derickson and boys and Mrs. Floyd Johnson enjoyed oven fresh cookies and coffee with Mrs. John Schultz.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson were supper and evening guests of the John Schultz family. The John Schultz, Floyd Johnson and Gale Taylor attended the cattle sale at Bassett and Burwell on Wednesday and Friday.

Mrs. Lou Brown was a dinner guest of Mrs. Floyd Johnson and Anthony's hospital, is to undergo surgery. His son, Joe flew in from Minneapolis to be with him. Mrs. Curran is also in Sioux City to be with her husband.

Last Wednesday supper guests of Mrs. Kathryn Yantzi were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Yantzi, Peggy and Steve and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Derickson and sons. Sam and Bill had spent the day pheasant hunting.

Linda Johnson and John Schultz were Saturday afternoon callers at the John Cleary home.

Sunday dinner guests at the John Schultz home were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Milnar and daughters, Judy and Nancy of O'Neill. They also spent the evening there. Mr. Milnar and girls and John and his three daughters went on a cocoa hunt after supper. It was a new experience for the Milnar girls but the Schultz trio go frequently with their daddy and Grandpa Johnson.

Rita Vequist was a Saturday overnight guest of Betty Turner in O'Neill.

Francis Sterns was a Monday evening visitor at the John Schultz home.

Atkinson News

St. Joseph school students and instructors staged their annual school carnival Thursday afternoon and evening at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Atkinson. The high light of the afternoon and evening affair was the crowning of the new Queen and King. Contestants for this honor were members of the first grade, with a tune of breaking her glasses on Sunday evening and was absent from school on Monday while she made a trip to Dr. David in Spencer to have them repaired.

The original Pinochle Pirates were honored with a supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McNulty on the evening of Oct. 27. Afterward they decided to practice up a bit by indulging in several games of pinochle.
